205.950 Certification of adult day care centers.

(1) The Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall, by administrative regulation in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A, establish health, safety, and treatment requirements for certified adult day care centers. No person, association, corporation, or other organization shall operate or maintain an adult day care center without first obtaining a certification as provided in this section.

(2) The cabinet may issue a certification to any adult day care center meeting standards provided for under subsection (1) of this section. The cabinet may deny, revoke, suspend, or modify adult day care center certification for failure to comply with standards or when it determines the health, safety, or security of residents is in jeopardy. Actions to deny, revoke, suspend, or modify a certification may be appealed to the cabinet within thirty (30) days of receipt of notification of intent. Upon appeal, a hearing shall be conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.
