446.160 Unconstitutionality of part of Kentucky Revised Statutes, effect.

If any provision of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, derived from an act that amended or repealed a pre-existing statute, is held unconstitutional, the general repeal of all former statutes by the act enacting the Kentucky Revised Statutes shall not prevent the pre-existing statute from being law if that appears to have been the intent of the General Assembly.

Effective: October 1, 1942

History: Created 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, to avoid any hiatus arising by reason of the unconstitutionality of any part of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.
