(A) First Offense: For the first offense, the employer shall be subject to a license sanction fee of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) per worker without lawful status found to be employed at the worksite inspected, and suspension of the employer's license to do business on Guam may be recommended. (D) During the appeal, the respondent (employer) who is served the notice of violation may establish an affirmative defense against the licensing sanctions imposed pursuant to this Section, if the employer has complied in good faith with the federal I-9 process to determine an alien's lawful work status prior to hire.

(3) In the event of a violation of this Section, if the employer of an alien worker without lawful work status is not readily identifiable, the prime contractor at a job site whose name appears on the building permit, or the owner named on the business license of the establishment inspected shall be liable for the licensing sanctions administered pursuant to this Section.

Each citation shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including a reference to the provision of the Title, standard, rule, regulation or order alleged to have been violated.
