ARTICLE 1. DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

IC 27-1-1

Chapter 1. Department Created

IC 27-1-1-1

Creation; functions

Sec. 1. There is hereby created a department in the state government of the state of Indiana which shall be known as the department of insurance. Said department shall have charge of the organization, supervision, regulation, examination, rehabilitation, liquidation, and/or conservation of all insurance companies to which this title is applicable, shall have charge of the enforcement, administration, and execution of the provisions of this title and the provisions of any other statute applicable to insurance companies, to the insurance department, or to the insurance commissioner, and shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may at any time be imposed or conferred on the department by law. Wherever by any of the provisions of any statute any right, power, or duty is imposed or conferred on the department, the right, power, or duty so imposed or conferred shall be possessed and exercised by the insurance commissioner, unless otherwise provided in that statute, or unless any such right, power, or duty is delegated to the duly appointed deputies, assistants, or employees of the department, or any of them, by an appropriate rule or order of the insurance commissioner.

Insurance commissioner

Sec. 2. (a) The powers, duties, management and control of the department of insurance are hereby conferred on and vested in the "insurance commissioner". The insurance commissioner shall be appointed by the governor, and shall be familiar with and known to possess a knowledge of the subject of insurance and be skilled in matters pertaining thereto and shall be chosen solely for fitness, irrespective of political beliefs or affiliations. The commissioner shall serve and may be removed at the pleasure of the governor, and shall be the chief executive and administrative officer of the department. The commissioner shall take an oath of office and give bond in the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) with surety to be approved by the governor for the faithful performance of his duties.

(b) The commissioner is authorized to attend and participate in the meetings of the national convention of insurance commissioners and of the committees thereof and may require the deputies, actuaries, and assistants that the commissioner may designate to attend and participate in such meetings. If the commissioner deems it advisable, the commissioner may request the attorney general or a deputy attorney general to attend and participate in such meetings. The commissioner and the deputies, actuaries, assistants, and attorneys of the department of insurance shall aid in promoting improvements in the insurance laws and the uniformity thereof in the several states. The expense of such attendance by the commissioner, and the deputies, actuaries, assistants, and attorneys shall be paid by the treasurer of state upon the warrant of the commissioner certifying that the commissioner has examined and approved the charges for such expenses.
