Authorization or release from claimant; when required; exceptions

Sec. 6. (a) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c), a law enforcement agency, an insurer, or a governmental agency that has reason to believe that an application for insurance or a claim for insurance proceeds is being, or is likely to be, presented:

- (1) based upon misrepresentation; and
- (2) with intent to defraud;

is not required to obtain any authorization or release in order to receive or provide any information other than medical records and medical reports and medical related information contained in medical records and medical reports regarding or in any way potentially relating to that claim or application from or to any other law enforcement agency, insurer, or governmental agency.

(b) In claims for bodily injury, only information:

- (1) regarding the type of injury claimed;
- (2) regarding the date of the alleged injury;
- (3) regarding the name and address of each medical provider submitted to support the claimed injuries; and
- (4) referred to in subsection (a);

may be released without first obtaining authorization or a release from the injured claimant.

(c) Medical records and medical reports and medical related information contained in medical records and medical reports may not be released under this chapter without first obtaining authorization or a release from the injured claimant unless:

- (1) the claim is a bodily injury claim; and
- (2) the parties requesting the release have complied with section 8 of this chapter.

Sec. 8. (a) A law enforcement agency, insurer, or governmental agency who has obtained the names and addresses of a claimant's medical providers under section 6(b) of this chapter may obtain the claimant's medical records and medical reports from any other law enforcement agency, insurer, or governmental agency:

(1) with the prior authorization or release of the injured claimant; or

(2) without the prior authorization or release of the injured claimant if:

(A) there is a reasonable belief that the mere request for authorization or a release will hinder a fraud investigation; and

(B) a verified application is presented to the circuit court in the county where the application or claim is presented that sets forth:

(i) probable cause for the need to obtain the medical records and medical reports and medical related information contained in the medical records and medical reports without obtaining the proper release or authorization; and

(ii) the specific medical records and medical reports and medical related information contained in the medical records and medical reports requested.

(b) The court, upon review of the information presented in subsection (a), may issue an order authorizing the law enforcement agency, insurer, or governmental agency to release the medical records and medical reports and the medical related information contained in the medical records and reports requested.
