Chapter 3. Injunction Against Posting of Notices and Bills on Telephone and Utility Poles

IC 34-26-3-1

Injunction or order of removal

Sec. 1. Upon petition by any party, the court may enjoin the posting of, or may order the removal of, handbills, notices, or other written material on telephone or utility poles in any case in which the court finds that to allow the posting, or permit the posting to continue, would be either unsafe or unsightly.
