Fiduciary transactions

Sec. 10. (a) Language conferring general authority with respect to fiduciary transactions means the principal authorizes the attorney in fact to do the following if the principal has the authority to delegate:

(1) Apply for and procure, in the name of the principal, letters of administration, letters testamentary, letters of guardianship, or any other type of judicial or administrative authority to act as a fiduciary.

(2) Represent and act for the principal in all ways and in all matters affecting a fund with respect to which the principal is a fiduciary.

(3) Initiate, participate in, and oppose a proceeding, judicial or otherwise, for the removal, substitution, or surcharge of a fiduciary, conserve, invest, or disburse anything received for the purposes of the fund for which it is received, and reimburse the attorney in fact for expenditures properly made by the attorney in fact in the execution of powers conferred on the attorney in fact.

(4) Agree and contract in any manner and on any terms with a person the attorney in fact selects to accomplish a purpose permitted under this section and perform, rescind, reform, release, or modify an agreement or contract made by or on behalf of the principal.

(5) Execute, acknowledge, verify, seal, file, and deliver a consent, a designation, a pleading, a notice, a demand, an election, a conveyance, a release, an assignment, a pledge, a check, a waiver, an admission of service, a notice of appearance, or other instrument the attorney in fact considers useful to accomplish a purpose permitted under this section.

(6) Hire, discharge, and compensate an attorney, accountant, expert witness, or other assistant when the attorney in fact considers the action to be desirable for the proper execution by the attorney in fact of a power described in this section and keep needed records.

(7) Perform any other acts with respect to a fund of which the principal is a fiduciary.

(b) The powers described in this section are exercisable equally with respect to a fund of which the principal is a fiduciary at the time of the giving of the power of attorney or becomes a fiduciary after that time, whether located in Indiana or in another jurisdiction.

(c) As used in this section, "fiduciary" means a trustee, personal representative, guardian, attorney in fact, custodian, escrow agent, or person similarly authorized to act primarily for the benefit of another person.

(d) As used in this section, "fund" means any asset, including real or personal property, in which a principal has an interest as a fiduciary.

(e) The powers granted in this section apply:

(1) to a fund existing at the time the power of attorney is executed;

(2) to a fund created after the power of attorney is executed; and

(3) whether or not the fund is located in Indiana.

IC 30-5-5-14

Records, reports, and statements

Sec. 14. (a) Language conferring general authority with respect to records, reports, and statements means the principal authorizes the attorney in fact to do the following:

(1) Keep records of cash received and disbursed for or on account of the principal, of credits and debits to the account of the principal, and of transactions affecting the assets and liabilities of the principal.

(2) Prepare, execute, and file tax and tax information returns for all periods required by the laws of the United States, a state, or a subdivision of a state, or a foreign government, prepare, execute, and file other tax related documents for all tax periods, including requests for an extension of time, offers, waivers, consents, powers of attorney, closing agreements, and petitions to a tax court regarding tax matters, and prepare, execute, and file all other instruments the attorney in fact considers desirable or necessary for the safeguarding of the principal against excessive or illegal taxation or against penalties imposed for claimed violation of a law or other governmental regulation. This subdivision is intended to be sufficiently definite to permit the attorney in fact to represent the principal respecting all taxes the principal has paid and all tax returns the principal has filed, either personally or through an agent, with the Internal Revenue Service, another agency of the United States, a state department of revenue, a political subdivision of a state, or a foreign country, or a political subdivision of a foreign country.

(3) Prepare, execute, and file a return, report, declaration, or other document required by the laws of the United States, a state, a political subdivision of a state, or a foreign government, including a report or declaration required by the Social Security Administration, the commissioner of economic security, or other similar agency that the attorney in fact considers desirable or necessary for the safeguarding or maintenance of the principal's interest.

(4) Prepare, execute, and file a record, report, or statement the attorney in fact considers desirable or necessary for the safeguarding or maintenance of the principal's interest with respect to price, rent, wage, or rationing control, or other governmental activity.

(5) Hire, discharge, and compensate an attorney, accountant, expert witness, or other assistant when the attorney in fact considers the action to be desirable for the execution of a power permitted under this section.

(6) Execute any document under IC 3 except:

- (A) a voter registration application;
- (B) the authorization to cancel a voter registration;
- (C) a declaration of candidacy;
- (D) a candidate's consent to be placed on the ballot;
- (E) a ballot; or
- (F) an absentee ballot.

(7) Perform any other acts in connection with the preparation, execution, filing, storage, or other use of records, reports, or statements of or concerning the principal's affairs.

(b) The powers described in this section are exercisable equally with respect to records, reports, or statements of or concerning the affairs of the principal existing at the time of the giving of the power of attorney or arising after that time, whether arising in Indiana or in another jurisdiction.

IC 30-5-5-15

Estate transactions

Sec. 15. (a) Language conferring general authority with respect to estate transactions means the principal authorizes the attorney in fact to do the following:

- (1) Accept, receipt for, exercise, release, reject, renounce, assign, disclaim, demand, sue for, claim, and recover a legacy, bequest, devise, gift, or other property interest or payment due or payable to or for the principal.
- (2) Assert an interest in and exercise power over a trust, an estate, or property subject to fiduciary control.
- (3) Establish a revocable trust solely for the benefit of the principal that terminates at the death of the principal.
- (4) Exercise all powers with respect to estates and trusts the principal could exercise. However, the attorney in fact may not make or change a will.

(b) In exercising powers of amendment or revocation, or powers to expend or withdraw property passing by trust, contract, or beneficiary designation at the principal's death, including specifically bequeathed property, joint accounts, life insurance, trusts, and retirement plans, the attorney in fact shall take the principal's estate plan into account to the extent the estate plan is known to the attorney in fact.

(c) The attorney in fact is not liable to a beneficiary of the principal's estate plan for an action performed under this section unless the attorney in fact acts in bad faith.

(d) The attorney in fact may:

- (1) have access to; and
- (2) copy, but not hold;

the principal's will, trusts, and other personal records to the extent necessary for the attorney in fact to act under this section.

As added by P.L.149-1991, SEC.2.

Health care powers; religious tenets; funeral planning declaration

Sec. 16. (a) This section does not prohibit an individual capable of consenting to the individual's own health care or to the health care of another from consenting to health care administered in good faith under the religious tenets and practices of the individual requiring health care.

(b) Language conferring general authority with respect to health care powers means the principal authorizes the attorney in fact to do the following:

- (1) Employ or contract with servants, companions, or health care providers to care for the principal.
- (2) Consent to or refuse health care for the principal who is an individual in accordance with IC 16-36-4 and IC 16-36-1 by properly executing and attaching to the power of attorney a declaration or appointment, or both.
- (3) Admit or release the principal from a hospital or health care facility.
- (4) Have access to records, including medical records, concerning the principal's condition.
- (5) Make anatomical gifts on the principal's behalf.
- (6) Request an autopsy.
- (7) Make plans for the disposition of the principal's body, including executing a funeral planning declaration on behalf of the principal in accordance with IC 29-2-19.

As added by P.L.149-1991, SEC.2. Amended by P.L.2-1993, SEC.154; P.L.143-2009, SEC.30; P.L.81-2015, SEC.20.

IC 30-5-5-17

Consent to or refusal of health care

Sec. 17. (a) If the attorney in fact has the authority to consent to or refuse health care under section 16(2) of this chapter, the attorney in fact may be empowered to ask in the name of the principal for health care to be withdrawn or withheld when it is not beneficial or when any benefit is outweighed by the demands of the treatment and death may result. To empower the attorney in fact to act under this section, the following language must be included in an appointment under IC 16-36-1 in substantially the same form set forth below:

I authorize my health care representative to make decisions in my best interest concerning withdrawal or withholding of health care. If at any time based on my previously expressed preferences and the diagnosis and prognosis my health care representative is satisfied that certain health care is not or would not be beneficial or that such health care is or would be excessively burdensome, then my health care representative may express my will that such health care be withheld or withdrawn and may consent on my behalf that any or all health care be discontinued or not instituted, even if death may result. My health care representative must try to discuss this decision with me. However, if I am unable to communicate, my health care representative may make such a decision for me, after consultation with my physician or physicians and other relevant health care givers. To the extent appropriate, my health care representative may also discuss this decision with my family and others to the extent they are available.

(b) Nothing in this section may be construed to authorize euthanasia.

Delegation of authority

Sec. 18. Language conferring general authority with respect to delegating authority means the principal authorizes the attorney in fact to delegate in writing to one (1) or more persons any or all powers given to the attorney in fact by the power of attorney. An action taken by a person holding delegated authority under this section binds the principal and persons who are obligated under IC 30-5-8 to obey instructions issued by the attorney in fact who delegated the authority, even if the attorney in fact who delegated the authority fails to serve or ceases to serve as provided under IC 30-5-4-4 unless:

- (1) the principal revokes the delegation of authority;
- (2) the delegation of authority by the attorney in fact is revoked by another attorney in fact who:
 - (A) is named in the power of attorney; and
 - (B) currently has authority and priority to act for the principal;
- (3) the power of attorney expires or is otherwise invalid or unenforceable; or
- (4) the power of attorney or the document in which the attorney delegates authority specifically provides that the delegation of authority is terminated when the attorney in fact who delegated the authority fails to serve or ceases to serve as provided under IC 30-5-4-4.
