IC 32-23-13-4

Mineral interest of an unknown or missing owner; lease to produce or develop

Sec. 4. An adjacent mineral producer that:

- (1) brings an action under; and
- (2) meets the requirements of;

this chapter may produce and develop all or part of a mineral interest of an unknown or missing owner under a lease entered into under this chapter.

As added by P.L.28-2015, SEC.1.

IC 32-23-13-5

Venue

Sec. 5. An action brought under this chapter by an adjacent mineral producer must be brought in the circuit court or superior court of the county:

- (1) in which the land that contains the mineral interest of an unknown or missing owner sought to be affected is entirely located; or
- (2) if the land is located in more than one (1) county:
 - (A) the county where the largest part of the land is located; or
 - (B) if equal parts of the land are in multiple counties, in any county that contains an equal part of the land.

As added by P.L.28-2015, SEC.1.

IC 32-23-13-6

Action; requirements; guardian ad litem

Sec. 6. (a) An adjacent mineral producer that brings an action under this chapter must do the following:

- (1) Name the following as respondents:
 - (A) The last owners of record in the chain of title and all reasonably ascertainable heirs, devisees, successors, and assigns of the last owners of record.
 - (B) If record title to the mineral interest of an unknown or missing owner has been severed of record from ownership of the overlying surface land, the record owner of the overlying surface land. Any person named in this subdivision must be sent notice of the action by certified mail.
- (2) File a verified petition with the court that sets forth the following:
 - (A) A statement that specifies the mineral that the petitioner seeks to develop in the subject land.
 - (B) The petitioner's request that a trustee be appointed to execute a lease granting the petitioner the right to produce and develop from the subject mineral interest of the unknown or missing owner a mineral of the type produced by the adjacent mineral producer.
 - (C) The legal description of the mineral interest of the unknown or missing owner.

(D) The interest of the petitioner in the land adjacent to, adjoining the subject land, or within the production unit established by the division of oil and gas.

(E) The apparent interest of each respondent in the applicable mineral sought to be produced and developed within the subject land.

(F) A verified statement that informs the court of the actions the petitioner has taken to identify and locate the unknown or missing owner or the owner's heirs, devisees, successors, and assigns.

(b) The Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure govern an action under this chapter to make an unknown or missing person a respondent. Legal service on a respondent who is unknown or missing may be made by publication.

(c) The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for any respondent to the proceeding who is:

- (1) a ward of the state or a ward to another person; or
- (2) less than eighteen (18) years of age and is not represented by a parent.

(d) If it appears to the court that a person who is not in being, but, upon coming into being, is or may be entitled to any interest in the land sought to be leased, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to appear for and represent the interest in the proceeding and to defend the proceeding on behalf of the person not in being. A judgment or order entered by the court in a proceeding under this chapter is effective against the person not in being.

IC 32-23-13-7

Court determinations; trustee appointment

Sec. 7. (a) The court shall receive evidence and hear testimony concerning:

- (1) the matters in the adjacent mineral producer's petition; and
- (2) the prevailing terms of similar mineral leases of the type sought by the petitioner obtained in the vicinity of the land in the petition, including the length of the lease term, bonus money, delay rentals, royalty rates, and other forms of lease payments.

(b) If the court determines that the material allegations of the petition are true and that there has been compliance with the required notice provisions, the court:

- (1) shall enter an order determining the interest of each respondent in the mineral interest sought to be leased; and
- (2) may:
 - (A) declare a trust in the mineral interest of the unknown or missing owner;
 - (B) appoint, without a bond, a trustee for the unknown or missing owner; and

- (C) authorize the trustee to execute a valid mineral lease:
 - (i) with the adjacent mineral producer concerning the type of mineral developed by the adjacent mineral producer on the mineral interest of the unknown or missing owner; and
 - (ii) on terms and conditions approved by the court.

(c) The court's judgment appointing a trustee and authorizing the execution of a lease must specify the minimum terms that may be accepted by the trustee. The terms must be substantially consistent with the terms of other similar mineral leases obtained in the vicinity as determined by the court.

(d) The court shall determine a reasonable fee to be paid to the trustee. The trustee's fee, including reasonable attorney's fees and costs of the proceeding, shall be paid by the adjacent mineral producer petitioner. Any other court costs related to the proceedings under this chapter shall be paid by the petitioner. However, each party shall pay its costs associated with issues arising under section 8 of this chapter.

(e) If a trustee:

- (1) dies or resigns; or
- (2) refuses or is unable to act;

the court, upon the court's motion or the motion of the petitioner, shall appoint a successor trustee.

As added by P.L.28-2015, SEC.1.

IC 32-23-13-8

Additional court proceedings

Sec. 8. (a) In proceedings under this chapter, the court may do the following:

- (1) Investigate and determine questions of conflicting or controverted titles.
- (2) Remove invalid and inapplicable encumbrances from the title to the subject land.
- (3) Establish and confirm the title to the subject mineral estate in land or the right to produce and develop the mineral from any of the subject land.

(b) The court may authorize the execution of a lease under this chapter before any matters under subsection (a) have been determined.

As added by P.L.28-2015, SEC.1.

IC 32-23-13-9

Trustee duties; lease

Sec. 9. (a) The trustee shall do the following:

- (1) Enter into negotiations with the adjacent mineral producer petitioner.
- (2) Execute a mineral lease in favor of the petitioner covering the interest of the respondents that reflects the findings and judgment of the court.
- (3) Promptly prepare and file a report of the mineral lease with the court that states the terms of the lease and the payments received for the lease.

(4) Give notice of the report of the mineral lease to all parties appearing of record.

(b) The court shall review the mineral lease under subsection (a) to determine if the lease is in accordance with the court's findings and judgment. If the court approves the mineral lease, the court shall:

(1) issue an order confirming the lease; and

(2) issue an order terminating the trust.

(c) A lease created under this section continues after the termination of the trust unless the lease expires by its own terms.

As added by P.L.28-2015, SEC.1.

IC 32-23-13-10

Lease payments; distribution of funds

Sec. 10. (a) Any payment that is owed by the adjacent mineral producer petitioner under a mineral lease executed with the trustee shall be paid by the petitioner to the clerk of the court.

(b) A person that wishes to claim the funds described in subsection (a) must file a verified claim with the court setting out the interest of the claimant and the basis for the claim. A notice of the filing of the claim shall be served on the adjacent mineral producer or the producer's successors or assigns and any record owner of the overlying surface land. The court shall determine any other persons who shall receive notice of the filing of the claim.

(c) The court:

(1) shall hear evidence and determine whether the claimant is entitled to the funds and issue an order to the clerk accordingly; and

(2) may determine whether future payments should be made by the petitioner directly to the claimant.

(d) If a successful claim is not made under this section for the funds within seven (7) years from the clerk's first receipt of any funds, the clerk shall distribute all the funds received and petitioner shall make any future payments as follows:

(1) If:

(A) record title to the mineral interest has been severed of record from ownership of the overlying surface land; and

(B) the identity and location of the record owner of the overlying surface land has been determined;

the clerk shall distribute the funds and the petitioner shall make any future payments to the record owner of the overlying surface land.

(2) If:

(A) record title to the mineral interest has been severed of record from ownership of the overlying surface land; and

(B) the identity and location of the record owner of the overlying surface land has not been determined;

the clerk shall distribute the funds and the petitioner shall make any future payments to the township trustee of the township in which the subject land is located. If the land is located in more than one (1) township, the distribution of funds shall be made to the township trustees based on the amount of land located in each township. The funds shall be used by the township trustee for township purposes, including, but not limited to, cemetery maintenance.

(3) If:

(A) record title to the mineral estate has not been severed of record from ownership of the overlying surface land; and

(B) the identity and location of the record owner of the overlying surface land has not been determined;

the clerk shall distribute the funds and the petitioner shall make any future payments to the township trustee of the township in which the subject land is located. If the land is located in more than one (1) township, the distribution of funds shall be made to the township trustees based on the amount of land located in each township. The funds shall be used by the township trustees for township purposes, including, but not limited to, cemetery maintenance.

(e) Thirty (30) days before the record owner of the overlying surface land may file a petition under subsection (a), the clerk of the court shall notify the record owner of the overlying surface land by certified mail that the owner may be entitled to file a petition for the funds.

As added by P.L.28-2015, SEC.1.

IC 32-23-13-11

Subsequent court proceedings

Sec. 11. (a) After the entry of the initial judgment authorizing a lease under this chapter, all subsequent proceedings that concern the land and the mineral interest involved in the initial litigation, including:

(1) subsequent leasing proceedings;

(2) proceedings by the trustee requesting authority to execute and deliver additional documents pertaining to a lease; and

(3) proceedings by a claimant of lease payments paid to the clerk;

must be commenced in the same court as the proceedings for the initial lease.

(b) The acting trustee at the time of any subsequent proceedings under subsection (a) shall act as the trustee in the subsequent proceedings. The court retains continuing jurisdiction over any subsequent proceedings.

(c) After the entry of the initial judgment authorizing a lease under this chapter, any record owner of the overlying surface land must be notified by certified mail not less than thirty (30) days in advance of all subsequent proceedings that concern the land and the mineral interest involved in the initial litigation, including:

(1) subsequent leasing proceedings;

- (2) proceedings by the trustee requesting authority to execute and deliver additional documents pertaining to a lease; and
- (3) proceedings by a claimant of lease payments paid to the clerk.

As added by P.L.28-2015, SEC.1.

IC 32-23-13-12

Application of lease

Sec. 12. (a) The lease of a mineral interest and execution of any lease under this chapter is binding concerning the interest in the mineral and the right to produce and develop the mineral owned by any respondent to the action in the same manner as if the respondent personally had signed and delivered the lease.

(b) The mineral lease is binding on the heirs, legatees, personal representatives, successors, and assigns of the respondents.

(c) A person who may have a contingent or future interest in the mineral interest of an unknown or missing owner is bound by the judgment entered in the proceedings under this chapter.

As added by P.L.28-2015, SEC.1.

IC 32-23-13-13

Marketable title

Sec. 13. This chapter shall be construed so that any lease issued under this chapter conveys marketable title.

As added by P.L.28-2015, SEC.1.

IC 32-23-13-14

Additional remedies

Sec. 14. The remedies provided in this chapter are not exclusive and do not prohibit the initiation of a petition for the integration of oil and gas interest as provided in IC 14-37-9, including the integration of interests of missing or unknown owners.

As added by P.L.28-2015, SEC.1.
