(1) value has been given;

(2) the debtor has rights in the collateral or the power to transfer rights in the collateral to a secured party; and

(1) the agreement satisfies subsection (b)(3) with respect to existing or after-acquired property of the new debtor to the extent the property is described in the agreement; and

(2) another agreement is not necessary to make a security interest in the property enforceable.

In other respects, the security interest is subject to IC 26-1-9.1.

(d) During any period in which collateral, subject to a statute specified in subsection (a)(2), is inventory held for sale or lease by a person or leased by that person as lessor, and that person is in the business of selling goods of that kind, this section does not apply to a security interest in that collateral created by that person, but instead, the filing provisions of IC 26-1-9.1-501 through IC 26-1-9.1-527 apply.

(2) unless the person otherwise agrees or a law other than IC 26-1-9.1 otherwise provides, the person does not owe any duty to the secured party and is not required to confirm the acknowledgment to another person.

(h) A secured party having possession of collateral does not relinquish possession by delivering the collateral to a person other than the debtor or a lessee of the collateral from the debtor in the ordinary course of the debtor's business if the person was instructed before the delivery or is instructed contemporaneously with the delivery:

(1) to hold possession of the collateral for the secured party's benefit; or

- (2) the expiration of four (4) months after the goods had become so covered.

(f) A security interest in deposit accounts, letter-of-credit rights, or investment property which is perfected under the law of the bank's jurisdiction, the issuer's jurisdiction, a nominated person's jurisdiction, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction, or the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction, as applicable, remains perfected until the earlier of:

- (1) the time the security interest would have become unperfected under the law of that jurisdiction; or
- (2) the expiration of four (4) months after a change of the applicable jurisdiction to another jurisdiction.

(g) If a security interest described in subsection (f) becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of the time or the end of the period described in that subsection, it remains perfected thereafter. If the security interest does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of that time or the end of that period, it becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(h) The following rules apply to collateral to which a security interest attaches within four (4) months after the debtor changes its location to another jurisdiction:

- (1) A financing statement filed before the change under the law of the jurisdiction designated in IC 26-1-9.1-301(1) or IC 26-1-9.1-305(c) is effective to perfect a security interest in the collateral if the financing statement would have been effective to perfect a security interest in the collateral had the debtor not changed its location.
- (2) If a security interest perfected by a financing statement that is effective under subdivision (1) becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of the time the financing statement would have become ineffective under the law of the jurisdiction designated in IC 26-1-9.1-301(1) or IC 26-1-9.1-305(c) or the expiration of the four (4) month period, it remains perfected thereafter. If the security interest does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier time or event, it becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(i) If a financing statement naming an original debtor is filed under the law of the jurisdiction designated in IC 26-1-9.1-301(1) or IC 26-1-9.1-305(c) and the new debtor is located in another jurisdiction, the following rules apply:

(1) The financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor before, and within four (4) months after, the new debtor becomes bound under IC 26-1-9.1-203(d), if the financing statement would have been effective to perfect a security interest in the collateral had the collateral been acquired by the original debtor.

(2) A security interest perfected by the financing statement and which becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of the time the financing statement would have become ineffective under the law of the jurisdiction designated in IC 26-1-9.1-301(1) or IC 26-1-9.1-305(c) or the expiration of the four (4) month period remains perfected thereafter. A security interest that is perfected by the financing statement but which does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier time or event becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

IC 26-1-9.1-317

Interests that take priority over or take free of unperfected security interest or agricultural lien

Sec. 317. (a) A security interest or agricultural lien is subordinate to the rights of:

- (1) a person entitled to priority under IC 26-1-9.1-322; and
- (2) except as provided in subsection (e), a person that becomes a lien creditor before the earlier of the time:

- (A) the security interest or agricultural lien is perfected; or
- (B) one (1) of the conditions specified in IC 26-1-9.1-203(b)(3) is met;

and a financing statement covering the collateral is filed.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), a buyer, other than a secured party, of tangible chattel paper, tangible documents, goods, instruments, or a certificated security takes free of a security interest or agricultural lien if the buyer gives value and receives delivery of the collateral without knowledge of the security interest or agricultural lien and before it is perfected.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), a lessee of goods takes free of a security interest or agricultural lien if the lessee gives value and receives delivery of the collateral without knowledge of the security interest or agricultural lien and before it is perfected.

(d) A licensee of a general intangible or a buyer, other than a secured party, of collateral other than tangible chattel paper, tangible documents, goods, instruments, or a certificated security takes free of a security interest if the licensee or buyer gives value without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-320 and IC 26-1-9.1-321, if a person files a financing statement with respect to a purchase-money security interest before or within twenty (20) days after the debtor receives delivery of the collateral, the security interest takes priority over the rights of a buyer, lessee, or lien creditor that arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of filing.

No interest retained in right to payment that is sold; rights and title of seller of account or chattel paper with respect to creditors and purchasers

Sec. 318. (a) A debtor that has sold an account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note does not retain a legal or equitable interest in the collateral sold.

(b) For purposes of determining the rights of creditors of, and purchasers for value of an account or chattel paper from, a debtor that has sold an account or chattel paper, while the buyer's security interest is unperfected, the debtor is deemed to have rights and title to the account or chattel paper identical to those the debtor sold.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), for purposes of determining the rights of creditors of, and purchasers for value of goods from, a consignee, while the goods are in the possession of the consignee, the consignee has rights and title to the goods identical to those the consignor had or had power to transfer.

(b) For purposes of determining the rights of a creditor of a consignee, law other than this article determines the rights and title of a consignee while goods are in the consignee's possession if, under IC 26-1-9.1-301 through IC 26-1-9.1-342, a perfected security interest held by the consignor would have priority over the rights of the creditor.

IC 26-1-9.1-320

Buyer of goods

Sec. 320. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection and subsection (e), a buyer in ordinary course of business takes free of a security interest created by the buyer's seller, even if the security interest is perfected and the buyer knows of its existence. The following apply whenever a person is buying farm products from a person engaged in farming operations who has created a security interest on the farm products:

(1) A person buying farm products from a person engaged in farming operations is not protected by this subsection if, within one (1) year before the sale of the farm products, the buyer has received prior written notice of the security interest. "Written notice" means any writing that contains the following:

(A) The full name and address of the debtor.

(B) The full name and address of the secured party.

(C) In the case of a debtor doing business other than as an individual, the United States Internal Revenue Service taxpayer identification number of the debtor.

(D) A description of the collateral, including the type and amount of farm products, the crop year, the county of location, and a description of the real property on which the farm products were grown or produced.

(E) Any payment obligations imposed on the buyer by the secured party as conditions for waiver or release of the security interest.

Notice must be received before a buyer of farm products has made full payment to the person engaged in farming operations for the farm products if the notice is to be considered "prior written notice". The written notice lapses on either the expiration period of the statement or the transmission of a notice signed by the secured party that the statement has lapsed, whichever occurs first.

(2) A secured party must, within fifteen (15) days of the satisfaction of the debt, inform in writing each potential buyer listed by the debtor whenever a debt has been satisfied and written notice, as required by subdivision (1), had been previously sent to that buyer.

(3) A debtor engaged in farming operations who has created a security interest in farm products must provide the secured party with a written list of potential buyers of the farm products at the time the debt is incurred if such a list is requested by the secured party. The debtor may not sell farm products to a buyer who does not appear on the list (if the list is requested by the secured party) unless the secured party has given prior written permission to the debtor to sell to someone who does not appear on the list, or the debtor satisfies the debt for that secured party on the farm products he sells within fifteen (15) days of the date of sale. A debtor who knowingly or intentionally sells to a buyer who does not appear on the list (if the list is requested by the secured party) and who does not meet one (1) of the above exceptions, commits a Class C misdemeanor. A secured party commits a Class C infraction if the secured party knowingly or intentionally gives false or misleading information on the notice required by subdivision (1) or the secured party fails within fifteen (15) days of satisfaction of the debt to notify purchasers to whom a written notice had been previously sent under subdivision (1) of the satisfaction of the debt.

(4) A purchaser of farm products buying from a person engaged in farming operations must issue a check for payment jointly to the debtor and those secured parties from whom he has received prior written notice of a security interest as provided for in subdivision (1). A purchaser who fails to issue a jointly payable check as required by this subsection is not protected by this subdivision. A purchaser of farm products (on which there is a perfected security interest) buying from a person engaged in farming operations who withholds all or part of the proceeds of the sale from the seller, in order to satisfy a prior debt ("prior debt" does not include the costs of marketing the farm product or the cost of transporting the farm product to the market) owed by the seller to the buyer, commits a Class C infraction.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), a buyer of goods from a person who used or bought the goods for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes takes free of a security interest, even if perfected, if the buyer buys:

- (1) without knowledge of the security interest;
- (2) for value;
- (3) primarily for the buyer's personal, family, or household purposes; and
- (4) before the filing of a financing statement covering the goods.

(c) To the extent that it affects the priority of a security interest over a buyer of goods under subsection (b), the period of effectiveness of a filing made in the jurisdiction in which the seller is located is governed by IC 26-1-9.1-316(a) and IC 26-1-9.1-316(b).

(d) A buyer in ordinary course of business buying oil, gas, or other minerals at the wellhead or minehead or after extraction takes free of an interest arising out of an encumbrance.

(e) Subsections (a) and (b) do not affect a security interest in goods in the possession of the secured party under IC 26-1-9.1-313. As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-321

Licensee of general intangible and lessee of goods in ordinary course of business

Sec. 321. (a) In this section, "licensee in ordinary course of business" means a person that becomes a licensee of a general intangible in good faith, without knowledge that the license violates the rights of another person in the general intangible, and in the ordinary course from a person in the business of licensing general intangibles of that kind. A person becomes a licensee in the ordinary course if the license to the person comports with the usual or customary practices in the kind of business in which the licensor is engaged or with the licensor's own usual or customary practices.

(b) A licensee in ordinary course of business takes its rights under a nonexclusive license free of a security interest in the general intangible created by the licensor, even if the security interest is perfected and the licensee knows of its existence.

(c) A lessee in ordinary course of business takes its leasehold interest free of a security interest in the goods created by the lessor, even if the security interest is perfected and the lessee knows of its existence.

IC 26-1-9.1-322

Priorities among conflicting security interests in and agricultural liens on same collateral

Sec. 322. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, priority among conflicting security interests and agricultural liens in the same collateral is determined according to the following rules:

(1) Conflicting perfected security interests and agricultural liens rank according to priority in time of filing or perfection. Priority dates from the earlier of the time a filing covering the collateral is first made or the security interest or agricultural lien is first perfected, if there is no period thereafter when there is neither filing nor perfection.

(2) A perfected security interest or agricultural lien has priority over a conflicting unperfected security interest or agricultural lien.

(3) The first security interest or agricultural lien to attach or become effective has priority if conflicting security interests and agricultural liens are unperfected.

(b) For the purposes of subsection (a)(1):

(1) the time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in collateral is also the time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in proceeds; and

(2) the time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in collateral supported by a supporting obligation is also the time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in the supporting obligation.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (f), a security interest in collateral which qualifies for priority over a conflicting security interest under IC 26-1-9.1-327, IC 26-1-9.1-328, IC 26-1-9.1-329, IC 26-1-9.1-330, or IC 26-1-9.1-331 also has priority over a conflicting security interest in:

(1) any supporting obligation for the collateral; and

(2) proceeds of the collateral if:

(A) the security interest in proceeds is perfected;

(B) the proceeds are cash proceeds or of the same type as the collateral; and

(C) in the case of proceeds that are proceeds of proceeds, all intervening proceeds are cash proceeds, proceeds of the same type as the collateral, or an account relating to the collateral.

(d) Subject to subsection (e) and except as otherwise provided in subsection (f), if a security interest in chattel paper, deposit accounts, negotiable documents, instruments, investment property, or letter-of-credit rights is perfected by a method other than filing, conflicting perfected security interests in proceeds of the collateral rank according to priority in time of filing.

(e) Subsection (d) applies only if the proceeds of the collateral are not cash proceeds, chattel paper, negotiable documents, instruments, investment property, or letter-of-credit rights.

(f) Subsections (a) through (e) are subject to:

- (1) subsection (g) and IC 26-1-9.1-301 through IC 26-1-9.1-342;
- (2) IC 26-1-4-210 with respect to a security interest of a collecting bank;
- (3) IC 26-1-5.1-118 with respect to a security interest of an issuer or nominated person; and
- (4) IC 26-1-9.1-110 with respect to a security interest arising under IC 26-1-2 or IC 26-1-2.1.

(g) A perfected agricultural lien on collateral has priority over a conflicting security interest in or agricultural lien on the same collateral if the statute creating the agricultural lien so provides.

IC 26-1-9.1-323

Future advances

Sec. 323. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), for purposes of determining the priority of a perfected security interest under IC 26-1-9.1-322(a)(1), perfection of the security interest dates from the time an advance is made to the extent that the security interest secures an advance that:

- (1) is made while the security interest is perfected only:
 - (A) under IC 26-1-9.1-309 when it attaches; or
 - (B) temporarily under IC 26-1-9.1-312(e), IC 26-1-9.1-312(f), or IC 26-1-9.1-312(g); and
- (2) is not made pursuant to a commitment entered into before or while the security interest is perfected by a method other than under IC 26-1-9.1-309, IC 26-1-9.1-312(e), IC 26-1-9.1-312(f), or IC 26-1-9.1-312(g).

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a security interest is subordinate to the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor to the extent that the security interest secures an advance made more than forty-five (45) days after the person becomes a lien creditor unless the advance is made:

- (1) without knowledge of the lien; or

(2) pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lien.

(c) Subsections (a) and (b) do not apply to a security interest held by a secured party that is a buyer of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes or a consignor.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), a buyer of goods other than a buyer in ordinary course of business takes free of a security interest to the extent that it secures advances made after the earlier of:

(1) the time the secured party acquires knowledge of the buyer's purchase; or

(2) forty-five (45) days after the purchase.

(e) Subsection (d) does not apply if the advance is made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the buyer's purchase and before the expiration of the forty-five (45) day period.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (g), a lessee of goods, other than a lessee in ordinary course of business, takes the leasehold interest free of a security interest to the extent that it secures advances made after the earlier of:

(1) the time the secured party acquires knowledge of the lease; or

(2) forty-five (45) days after the lease contract becomes enforceable.

(g) Subsection (f) does not apply if the advance is made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lease and before the expiration of the forty-five (45) day period.

Priority of purchase-money security interests

Sec. 324. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (g), a perfected purchase-money security interest in goods other than inventory or livestock has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same goods, and, except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-327, a perfected security interest in its identifiable proceeds also has priority, if the purchase-money security interest is perfected when the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within twenty (20) days thereafter.

(b) Subject to subsection (c) and except as otherwise provided in subsection (g), a perfected purchase-money security interest in inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same inventory, has priority over a conflicting security interest in chattel paper or an instrument constituting proceeds of the inventory and in proceeds of the chattel paper, if so provided in IC 26-1-9.1-330, and, except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-327, also has priority in identifiable cash proceeds of the inventory to the extent the identifiable cash proceeds are received on or before the delivery of the inventory to a buyer, if:

- (1) the purchase-money security interest is perfected when the debtor receives possession of the inventory;
- (2) the purchase-money secured party sends an authenticated notification to the holder of the conflicting security interest;
- (3) the holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within five (5) years before the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

- (1) if the purchase-money security interest is perfected by filing, before the date of the filing; or
- (2) if the purchase-money security interest is temporarily perfected without filing or possession under IC 26-1-9.1-312(f), before the beginning of the twenty (20) day period thereunder.

- (1) the purchase-money security interest is perfected when the debtor receives possession of the livestock;
- (2) the purchase-money secured party sends an authenticated notification to the holder of the conflicting security interest;

purchase-money security interest in the goods in which the software was acquired for use has priority in the goods and proceeds of the goods under this section.

(g) If more than one (1) security interest qualifies for priority in the same collateral under subsection (a), (b), (d), or (f):

(1) a security interest securing an obligation incurred as all or part of the price of the collateral has priority over a security interest securing an obligation incurred for value given to enable the debtor to acquire rights in or the use of collateral; and

(2) the security interest created by the other person was perfected when the debtor acquired the collateral; and

(3) there is no period thereafter when the security interest is unperfected.

(2) arose solely under IC 26-1-2-711(3) or IC 26-1-2.1-508(5).

Sec. 326. (a) Subject to subsection (b), a security interest that is created by a new debtor in collateral in which the new debtor has or acquires rights and is perfected solely by a filed financing statement that would be ineffective to perfect the security interest but for the application of IC 26-1-9.1-316(i)(1) or IC 26-1-9.1-508 is subordinate to a security interest in the same collateral that is perfected by another method.

(b) The other provisions of IC 26-1-9.1-301 through IC 26-1-9.1-342 determine the priority among conflicting security interests in the same collateral perfected by filed financing statements described in subsection (a). However, if the security agreements to which a new debtor became bound as a debtor were not entered into by the same original debtor, the conflicting security interests rank according to priority in time of the new debtor's having

(2) the chattel paper does not indicate that it has been assigned to an identified assignee other than the purchaser.

(b) A purchaser of chattel paper has priority over a security interest in the chattel paper which is claimed other than merely as proceeds of inventory subject to a security interest if the purchaser gives new value and takes possession of the chattel paper or obtains control of the chattel paper under IC 26-1-9.1-105 in good faith, in the ordinary course of the purchaser's business, and without knowledge that the purchase violates the rights of the secured party.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-331(a), a purchaser of an instrument has priority over a security interest in the instrument perfected by a method other than possession if the purchaser gives value and takes possession of the instrument in good faith and without knowledge that the purchase violates the rights of the secured party.

(e) For purposes of subsections (a) and (b), the holder of a purchase-money security interest in inventory gives new value for chattel paper constituting proceeds of the inventory.

(f) For purposes of subsections (b) and (d), if chattel paper or an instrument indicates that it has been assigned to an identified secured party other than the purchaser, a purchaser of the chattel paper or instrument has knowledge that the purchase violates the rights of the secured party.

IC 26-1-9.1-331

Priority of rights of purchasers of instruments, documents, and securities under other chapters; priority of interests in financial assets and security entitlements under IC 26-1-8.1

Sec. 331. (a) This article does not limit the rights of a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument, a holder to which a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated, or a protected purchaser of a security. These holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security interest, even if perfected, to the extent provided in IC 26-1-3.1, IC 26-1-7, and IC 26-1-8.1.

(b) This article does not limit the rights of or impose liability on a person to the extent that the person is protected against the assertion of an adverse claim under IC 26-1-8.1.

(c) Filing under IC 26-1-9.1 does not constitute notice of a claim or defense to the holders, purchasers, or persons described in subsections (a) and (b).

IC 26-1-9.1-332

Transfer of money; transfer of funds from deposit account

Sec. 332. (a) A transferee of money takes the money free of a security interest unless the transferee acts in collusion with the debtor in violating the rights of the secured party.

(b) A transferee of funds from a deposit account takes the funds free of a security interest in the deposit account unless the transferee acts in collusion with the debtor in violating the rights of the secured party.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-333

Priority of certain liens arising by operation of law

Sec. 333. (a) In this section, "possessory lien" means an interest, other than a security interest or an agricultural lien:

- (1) that secures payment or performance of an obligation for services or materials furnished with respect to goods by a person in the ordinary course of the person's business;
- (2) that is created by statute or rule of law in favor of the person; and
- (3) whose effectiveness depends on the person's possession of the goods.

(b) A possessory lien on goods has priority over a security interest in the goods unless the lien is created by a statute that expressly provides otherwise.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-334

Priority of security interests in fixtures and crops

Sec. 334. (a) A security interest under IC 26-1-9.1 may be created in goods that are fixtures or may continue in goods that become fixtures. A security interest does not exist under IC 26-1-9.1 in ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

(b) IC 26-1-9.1 does not prevent creation of an encumbrance upon fixtures under real property law.

(c) In cases not governed by subsections (d) through (h), a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the related real property other than the debtor.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (h), a perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if the debtor has an interest of record in or is in possession of the real property and:

- (1) the security interest is a purchase-money security interest;
 - (2) the interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures; and
 - (3) the security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within twenty (20) days thereafter.
- (e) A perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if:
- (1) the debtor has an interest of record in the real property or is in possession of the real property and the security interest:
 - (A) is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record; and
 - (B) has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner;
 - (2) before the goods become fixtures, the security interest is perfected by any method permitted by IC 26-1-9.1 and the fixtures are readily removable:
 - (A) factory or office machines;
 - (B) equipment that is not primarily used or leased for use in the operation of the real property; or
 - (C) replacements of domestic appliances that are consumer goods;
 - (3) the conflicting interest is a lien on the real property obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the security interest was perfected by any method permitted by IC 26-1-9.1; or
 - (4) the security interest is:
 - (A) created in a manufactured home in a manufactured-home transaction; and
 - (B) perfected pursuant to a statute described in IC 26-1-9.1-311(a)(2).
- (f) A security interest in fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if:
- (1) the encumbrancer or owner has, in an authenticated record, consented to the security interest or disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures; or
 - (2) the debtor has a right to remove the goods against the encumbrancer or owner.
- (g) The priority of the security interest under subsection (f) continues for a reasonable time if the debtor's right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner terminates.
- (h) A mortgage is a construction mortgage to the extent that it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land, including the acquisition cost of the land, if a recorded record of the mortgage so indicates. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (e) and (f), a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a construction mortgage if a record of the mortgage is recorded before the goods become fixtures and the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. A mortgage has this priority to the same extent as a construction mortgage to the extent that it is given to refinance a construction mortgage.

(i) A perfected security interest in crops growing on real property has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if the debtor has an interest of record in or is in possession of the real property.

IC 26-1-9.1-335

Accessions

Sec. 335. (a) A security interest may be created in an accession and continues in collateral that becomes an accession.

(b) If a security interest is perfected when the collateral becomes an accession, the security interest remains perfected in the collateral.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), the other provisions of IC 26-1-9.1-301 through IC 26-1-9.1-342 determine the priority of a security interest in an accession.

(d) A security interest in an accession is subordinate to a security interest in the whole which is perfected by compliance with the requirements of a certificate-of-title statute under IC 26-1-9.1-311(b).

(e) After default, subject to IC 26-1-9.1-601 through IC 26-1-9.1-628, a secured party may remove an accession from other goods if the security interest in the accession has priority over the claims of every person having an interest in the whole.

(f) A secured party that removes an accession from other goods under subsection (e) shall promptly reimburse any holder of a security interest or other lien on, or owner, of the whole or the other goods, other than the debtor, for the cost of repair of any physical injury to the whole or the other goods. The secured party need not reimburse the holder or owner for any diminution in value of the whole or the other goods caused by the absence of the accession removed or by any necessity for replacing it. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the secured party gives adequate assurance for the performance of the obligation to reimburse.

IC 26-1-9.1-336

Commingled goods

Sec. 336. (a) As used in this section, "commingled goods" means goods that are physically united with other goods in such a manner that their identity is lost in a product or mass.

(b) A security interest does not exist in commingled goods as such. However, a security interest may attach to a product or mass that results when goods become commingled goods.

(c) If collateral becomes commingled goods, a security interest attaches to the product or mass.

(d) If a security interest in collateral is perfected before the collateral becomes commingled goods, the security interest that attaches to the product or mass under subsection (c) is perfected.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (f), the other provisions of IC 26-1-9.1-301 through IC 26-1-9.1-342 determine the priority of a security interest that attaches to the product or mass under subsection (c).

(f) If more than one (1) security interest attaches to the product or mass under subsection (c), the following rules determine priority:

(1) A security interest that is perfected under subsection (d) has priority over a security interest that is unperfected at the time the collateral becomes commingled goods.

(2) If more than one (1) security interest is perfected under subsection (d), the security interests rank equally in proportion to value of the collateral at the time it became commingled goods.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-337

Priority of security interests in goods covered by certificate of title

Sec. 337. If, while a security interest in goods is perfected by any method under the law of another jurisdiction, this state issues a certificate of title that does not show that the goods are subject to the security interest or contain a statement that they may be subject to security interests not shown on the certificate:

(1) a buyer of the goods, other than a person in the business of selling goods of that kind, takes free of the security interest if the buyer gives value and receives delivery of the goods after issuance of the certificate and without knowledge of the security interest; and

(2) the security interest is subordinate to a conflicting security interest in the goods that attaches, and is perfected under IC 26-1-9.1-311(b), after issuance of the certificate and without the conflicting secured party's knowledge of the security interest.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-338

Priority of security interest or agricultural lien perfected by filed financing statement providing certain incorrect information

Sec. 338. If a security interest or agricultural lien is perfected by a filed financing statement providing information described in IC 26-1-9.1-516(b)(5) that is incorrect at the time the financing statement is filed:

(1) the security interest or agricultural lien is subordinate to a conflicting perfected security interest in the collateral to the extent that the holder of the conflicting security interest gives value in reasonable reliance upon the incorrect information; and

(2) a purchaser, other than a secured party, of the collateral takes free of the security interest or agricultural lien to the extent that, in reasonable reliance upon the incorrect information, the purchaser gives value and, in the case of tangible chattel paper, tangible documents, goods, instruments, or a security certificate, receives delivery of the collateral.

IC 26-1-9.1-339

Priority subject to subordination

Sec. 339. IC 26-1-9.1 does not preclude subordination by agreement by a person entitled to priority.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-340

Effectiveness of right of recoupment or setoff against deposit account

Sec. 340. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a bank with which a deposit account is maintained may exercise any right of recoupment or set-off against a secured party that holds a security interest in the deposit account.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), the application of IC 26-1-9.1 to a security interest in a deposit account does not affect a right of recoupment or set-off of the secured party as to a deposit account maintained with the secured party.

(c) The exercise by a bank of a set-off against a deposit account is ineffective against a secured party that holds a security interest in the deposit account which is perfected by control under IC 26-1-9.1-104(a)(3), if the set-off is based on a claim against the debtor.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-341

Bank's rights and duties with respect to deposit account

Sec. 341. Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-340(c), and unless the bank otherwise agrees in an authenticated record, a bank's rights and duties with respect to a deposit account maintained with the bank are not terminated, suspended, or modified by:

- (1) the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the deposit account;
- (2) the bank's knowledge of the security interest; or
- (3) the bank's receipt of instructions from the secured party.

IC 26-1-9.1-342

Bank's right to refuse to enter into or disclose existence of control

Sec. 342. IC 26-1-9.1 does not require a bank to enter into an agreement of the kind described in IC 26-1-9.1-104(a)(2), even if its customer so requests or directs. A bank that has entered into such an agreement is not required to confirm the existence of the agreement to another person unless requested to do so by its customer.

IC 26-1-9.1-401Alienability of debtor's rights

Sec. 401. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) and IC 26-1-9.1-406, IC 26-1-9.1-407, IC 26-1-9.1-408, and IC 26-1-9.1-409, whether a debtor's rights in collateral may be voluntarily or involuntarily transferred is governed by law other than IC 26-1-9.1.

(b) An agreement between the debtor and secured party that prohibits a transfer of the debtor's rights in collateral or makes the transfer a default does not prevent the transfer from taking effect.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-402Secured party not obligated on contract of debtor or in tort

Sec. 402. The existence of a security interest, agricultural lien, or authority given to a debtor to dispose of or use collateral, without more, does not subject a secured party to liability in contract or tort for the debtor's acts or omissions.

IC 26-1-9.1-403Agreement not to assert defenses against assignee

Sec. 403. (a) As used in this section, "value" has the meaning provided in IC 26-1-3-303(a).

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor not to assert against an assignee any claim or defense that the account debtor may have against the assignor is enforceable by an assignee that takes an assignment:

- (1) for value;
- (2) in good faith;
- (3) without notice of a claim of a property or possessory right to the property assigned; and
- (4) without notice of a defense or claim in recoupment of the type that may be asserted against a person entitled to enforce a negotiable instrument under IC 26-1-3.1-305(a).

(c) Subsection (b) does not apply to defenses of a type that may be asserted against a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument under IC 26-1-3.1-305(b).

(d) In a consumer transaction, if a record evidences the account

debtor's obligation, law other than IC 26-1-9.1 requires that the record include a statement to the effect that the rights of an assignee are subject to claims or defenses that the account debtor could assert against the original obligee, and the record does not include such a statement:

(1) the record has the same effect as if the record included such a statement; and

(2) the account debtor may assert against an assignee those claims and defenses that would have been available if the record included such a statement.

(e) This section is subject to law other than IC 26-1-9.1 that establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), this section does not displace law other than IC 26-1-9.1 which gives effect to an agreement by an account debtor not to assert a claim or defense against an assignee.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-404

Rights acquired by assignee; claims and defenses against assignee

Sec. 404. (a) Unless an account debtor has made an enforceable agreement not to assert defenses or claims, and subject to subsections (b) through (e), the rights of an assignee are subject to:

(1) all terms of the agreement between the account debtor and assignor and any defense or claim in recoupment arising from the transaction that gave rise to the contract; and

(2) any other defense or claim of the account debtor against the assignor which accrues before the account debtor receives a notification of the assignment authenticated by the assignor or the assignee.

(b) Subject to subsection (c) and except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), the claim of an account debtor against an assignor may be asserted against an assignee under subsection (a) only to reduce the amount the account debtor owes.

(c) This section is subject to law other than IC 26-1-9.1 that establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(d) In a consumer transaction, if a record evidences the account debtor's obligation, law other than IC 26-1-9.1 requires that the record include a statement to the effect that the account debtor's recovery against an assignee with respect to claims and defenses against the assignor may not exceed amounts paid by the account debtor under the record, and the record does not include such a statement, the extent to which a claim of an account debtor against the assignor may be asserted against an assignee is determined as if the record included such a statement.

(e) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

IC 26-1-9.1-405

Modification of assigned contract

Sec. 405. (a) A modification of or substitution for an assigned contract is effective against an assignee if made in good faith. The assignee acquires corresponding rights under the modified or substituted contract. The assignment may provide that the modification or substitution is a breach of contract by the assignor. This subsection is subject to subsections (b) through (d).

(b) Subsection (a) applies to the extent that:

- (1) the right to payment or a part thereof under an assigned contract has not been fully earned by performance; or
- (2) the right to payment or a part thereof has been fully earned by performance and the account debtor has not received notification of the assignment under IC 26-1-9.1-406(a).

(c) This section is subject to law other than IC 26-1-9.1 that establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(d) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-406

Discharge of account debtor; notification of assignment; identification and proof of assignment; restrictions on assignment of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, and promissory notes ineffective

Sec. 406. (a) Subject to subsections (b) through (i), an account debtor on an account, chattel paper, or a payment intangible may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor until, but not after, the account debtor receives a notification, authenticated by the assignor or the assignee, that the amount due or to become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. After receipt of the notification, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignee and may not discharge the obligation by paying the assignor.

(b) Subject to subsection (h), notification is ineffective under subsection (a):

- (1) if it does not reasonably identify the rights assigned;
- (2) to the extent that an agreement between an account debtor and a seller of a payment intangible limits the account debtor's duty to pay a person other than the seller and the limitation is effective under law other than IC 26-1-9.1; or

(3) at the option of an account debtor, if the notification notifies the account debtor to make less than the full amount of any installment or other periodic payment to the assignee, even if:

- (A) only a portion of the account, chattel paper, or payment intangible has been assigned to that assignee;
- (B) a portion has been assigned to another assignee; or
- (C) the account debtor knows that the assignment to that assignee is limited.

(c) Subject to subsection (h), if requested by the account debtor, an assignee shall seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made. Unless the assignee complies, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor, even if the account debtor has received a notification under subsection (a).

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e) and IC 26-1-2.1-303 and IC 26-1-9.1-407, and subject to subsection (h), a term in an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor or in a promissory note is ineffective to the extent that it:

- (1) prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the account debtor or person obligated on the promissory note to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note; or
- (2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note.

(e) Subsection (d) does not apply to the sale of a payment intangible or promissory note other than a sale pursuant to a disposition under IC 26-1-9.1-610 or an acceptance of collateral under IC 26-1-9.1-620.

(f) Except as provided in IC 26-1-2.1-303 and IC 26-1-9.1-407, and subject to subsections (h) and (i), a rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, an account or chattel paper is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

- (1) prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the account or chattel paper; or
- (2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account or chattel paper.

(g) Subject to subsection (h), an account debtor may not waive or vary its option under subsection (b)(3).

(h) This section is subject to law other than IC 26-1-9.1 which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(i) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

IC 26-1-9.1-407

Restrictions on creation or enforcement of security interest in leasehold interest or in lessor's residual interest

Sec. 407. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a term in a lease agreement is ineffective to the extent that it:

(1) prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a party to the lease to the assignment, transfer, creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in an interest of a party under the lease contract or in the lessor's residual interest in the goods; or

(2) provides that the assignment, transfer, creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the lease.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-2.1-303(7), a term described in subsection (a)(2) is effective to the extent that there is:

(1) a transfer by the lessee of the lessee's right of possession or use of the goods in violation of the term; or

(2) a delegation of a material performance of either party to the lease contract in violation of the term.

(c) The creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the lessor's interest under the lease contract or the lessor's residual interest in the goods is not a transfer that materially impairs the lessee's prospect of obtaining return performance or materially changes the duty of or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on the lessee within the purview of IC 26-1-2.1-303(4) unless, and then only to the extent that, enforcement actually results in a delegation of material performance of the lessor.

IC 26-1-9.1-408

Restrictions on assignment of promissory notes, health care insurance receivables, and certain general intangibles ineffective

Sec. 408. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor that relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or a general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise, and which term prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to, the assignment or transfer of, or creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in, the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, is ineffective to the extent that the term:

(1) would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or

(2) provides that the assignment, transfer, creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(b) Subsection (a) applies to a security interest in a payment intangible or promissory note only if the security interest arises out of a sale of the payment intangible or promissory note other than a sale under a disposition under IC 26-1-9.1-610 or an acceptance of collateral under IC 26-1-9.1-620.

(c) A rule of law, statute, or regulation, which prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, person obligated on a promissory note, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, a promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise between an account debtor and a debtor, is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

(1) would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or

(2) provides that the assignment, transfer, creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(d) To the extent that a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible or a rule of law, statute, or regulation described in subsection (c) would be effective under law other than IC 26-1-9.1 but is ineffective under subsection (a) or (c), the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible:

(1) is not enforceable against the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;

(2) does not impose a duty or obligation on the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;

(3) does not require the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party, or accept payment or performance from the secured party;

(4) does not entitle the secured party to use or assign the debtor's rights under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including any related information or materials furnished to the debtor in the transaction giving rise to the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible;

(5) does not entitle the secured party to use, assign, possess, or have access to any trade secrets or confidential information of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor; and

(6) does not entitle the secured party to enforce the security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(e) This section prevails over any inconsistent provision in statute, administrative rule, or regulation.

IC 26-1-9.1-409

Restrictions on assignment of letter-of-credit rights ineffective

Sec. 409. (a) A term in a letter-of-credit or a rule of law, statute, regulation, custom, or practice applicable to the letter-of-credit that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of an applicant, issuer, or nominated person to a beneficiary's assignment of or creation of a security interest in a letter-of-credit right is ineffective to the extent that the term or rule of law, statute, regulation, custom, or practice:

(1) would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the letter-of-credit right; or

(2) provides that the assignment, transfer, creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the letter-of-credit right.

(b) To the extent that a term in a letter-of-credit is ineffective under subsection (a) but would be effective under law other than IC 26-1-9.1 or a custom or practice applicable to the letter-of-credit, to the transfer of a right to draw or otherwise demand performance under the letter-of-credit, or to the assignment of a right to proceeds of the letter-of-credit, the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the letter-of-credit right:

(1) is not enforceable against the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary;

(2) imposes no duties or obligations on the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary; and

(3) does not require the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party, or accept payment or other performance from the secured party.

IC 26-1-9.1-501

Filing office

Sec. 501. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b), (c), and (d), if the local law of this state governs perfection of a security interest or agricultural lien, the office in which to file a financing statement to perfect the security interest or agricultural lien is:

(1) the office designated for the filing or recording of a record of a mortgage on the related real property, if:

(A) the collateral is as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut; or

(B) the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing and the collateral is goods that are or are to become fixtures; or

(2) the office of the secretary of state, in all other cases, including a case in which the collateral is goods that are or are to become fixtures and the financing statement is not filed as a fixture filing.

(b) The office in which to file a financing statement to perfect a security interest in collateral, including fixtures, of a transmitting utility is the office of the secretary of state. The financing statement also constitutes a fixture filing as to the collateral indicated in the financing statement which is or is to become fixtures.

(c) Before July 1, 2002, the requirements for perfection of an agricultural lien are as prescribed in the statute establishing the agricultural lien.

(d) Before July 1, 2002, the office in which to file a financing statement to perfect a security interest in equipment used in a farming operation, a farm product, or an account or a general intangible arising from or relating to the sale of a farm product by a farmer is:

(1) the office of the county recorder in the county of the debtor's principal residence, if the debtor is an individual with the debtor's principal residence in Indiana;

(2) the office of the county recorder in the county of the debtor's place of business, if the debtor is an organization with one (1) place of business in Indiana;

(3) the office of the county recorder in the county of the debtor's chief executive office, if the debtor is an organization with two (2) or more places of business in Indiana and the debtor's chief executive office is in Indiana; and

(4) the office of the county recorder in the county in which the collateral is located, for equipment used in a farming operation or farm product, or the office of the secretary of state, for an account or a general intangible arising from or relating to the sale of a farm product by a farmer, in all other cases.

(e) A financing statement filed under subsection (d) is effective for five (5) years after the date the financing statement is filed.

(f) After June 30, 2001, and before July 1, 2002, a financing statement filed under subsection (d) may be amended only by filing an amendment in the same office of county recorder as the office in which the financing statement being amended was filed.

(g) After June 30, 2002, a financing statement filed under subsection (d) may be amended only if a replacement financing statement is filed in the office of the secretary of state. The replacement financing statement must:

- (1) satisfy the requirements of IC 26-1-9.1 for an initial financing statement;
- (2) identify the earlier financing statement filed under subsection (d) by:
 - (A) indicating the office in which the earlier financing statement was filed; and
 - (B) providing the dates of filing and file numbers, if any, of:
 - (i) the earlier financing statement filed under subsection (d); and
 - (ii) the most recent amendment filed with respect to the financing statement filed under subsection (d); and
- (3) indicate that the earlier financing statement filed under subsection (d) remains effective.

(h) The filing of a replacement financing statement under subsection (g) is effective as a continuation statement of the earlier financing statement filed under subsection (d) if it is filed:

- (1) after June 30, 2002; and
- (2) before the lapse of the earlier financing statement filed under subsection (d).

The filing of a replacement financing statement under subsection (g) continues the effectiveness of the earlier financing statement filed under subsection (d) for five (5) years after the date the replacement financing statement is filed.

(i) After June 30, 2002, a financing statement filed under subsection (d) may be terminated:

- (1) by filing a termination statement in the office in which the initial financing statement has been filed if no replacement financing statement has been filed under subsection (g); or
- (2) by filing a termination statement in the office of the secretary of state if a replacement financing statement has been filed under subsection (g).

(j) After June 30, 2002, a financing statement filed under subsection (d) may be assigned only if:

- (1) a replacement financing statement is filed under subsection (g); and
- (2) an assignment of record is filed that satisfies IC 26-1-9.1-514.

(k) After June 30, 2002, a financing statement filed under subsection (c) may be amended (for purposes other than continuation, termination, or assignment) only if:

- (1) a replacement financing statement is filed under subsection (g); and
- (2) an amendment is filed that satisfies IC 26-1-9.1-512.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45. Amended by P.L.165-2001, SEC.11.

IC 26-1-9.1-502

Contents of financing statement; record of mortgage as financing statement; time of filing financing statement

Sec. 502. (a) Subject to subsection (b), a financing statement is sufficient only if it:

- (1) provides the name of the debtor;
- (2) provides the name of the secured party or a representative of the secured party; and
- (3) indicates the collateral covered by the financing statement.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-501(b), to be sufficient, a financing statement that covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, or which is filed as a fixture filing and covers goods that are or are to become fixtures, must satisfy subsection (a) and also:

- (1) indicate that it covers this type of collateral;
- (2) indicate that it is to be filed in the real property records;
- (3) provide a description of the real property to which the collateral is related that is sufficient to give constructive notice of a mortgage under the law of this state if the description were contained in a record of the mortgage of the real property; and
- (4) if the debtor does not have an interest of record in the real property, provide the name of a record owner.

(c) A record of a mortgage is effective, from the date of recording, as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing or as a financing statement covering as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut only if:

- (1) the record indicates the goods or accounts that it covers;
- (2) the goods are or are to become fixtures related to the real property described in the record or the collateral is related to the real property described in the record and is as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut;
- (3) the record satisfies the requirements for a financing statement in this section, but:
 - (A) the record need not indicate that it is to be filed in the real property records; and
 - (B) the record sufficiently provides the name of a debtor who is an individual if it provides the individual name of the debtor or the surname and first personal name of the debtor, even if the debtor is an individual to whom IC 26-1-9.1-503(a)(4) applies; and
- (4) the record is recorded.

(d) A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches.

(e) To the extent that IC 36-2-11-15 applies to require the identification of the preparer of a financing statement, the failure of the financing statement to identify the preparer does not affect the sufficiency of the financing statement.

(f) This subsection does not apply to a financing statement described in IC 26-1-9.1-706. Not later than thirty (30) days after the date the financing statement is filed, the secured party that files the financing statement shall furnish a copy of the financing statement to the debtor. The secured party has the burden of establishing compliance with this subsection. The failure of the secured party to comply with this subsection does not affect the sufficiency or effectiveness of the financing statement. A person who fails to comply with this subsection is subject to IC 26-1-9.1-625.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45. Amended by P.L.165-2001, SEC.12; P.L.54-2011, SEC.12.

IC 26-1-9.1-503

Name of debtor and secured party

Sec. 503. (a) A financing statement sufficiently provides the name of the debtor:

(1) except as otherwise provided in subdivision (3), if the debtor is a registered organization or the collateral is held in a trust that is a registered organization, only if the financing statement provides the name that is stated to be the registered organization's name on the public organic record most recently filed with or issued or enacted by the registered organization's jurisdiction of organization which purports to state, amend, or restate the registered organization's name;

(2) subject to subsection (f), if the collateral is being administered by the personal representative of a decedent only if the financing statement provides as the name of the debtor the name of the decedent, and, in a separate part of the financing statement, indicates that the collateral is being administered by a personal representative;

(3) if the collateral is held in a trust that is not a registered organization, only if the financing statement:

(A) provides as the name of the debtor:

(i) if the organic record of the trust specifies a name for the trust, the name specified; or

(ii) if the organic record of the trust does not specify a name for the trust, the name of the settlor or testator; and

(B) in a separate part of the financing statement:

(i) if the name is provided in accordance with clause (A)(i), indicates that the collateral is held in a trust; or

(ii) if the name is provided in accordance with clause (A)(ii), provides additional information sufficient to distinguish the trust from other trusts having one (1) or more of the same settlors of the same testator and indicates that the collateral is held in a trust, unless the additional information so indicates;

(4) subject to subsection (g), if the debtor is an individual to whom this state has issued a driver's license, an identification card for nondrivers under IC 9-24-16, or a photo exempt identification card for nondrivers under IC 9-24-16.5 that has not expired, only if the financing statement provides the name of the individual which is indicated on the driver's license, identification card, or photo exempt identification card;

(5) if the debtor is an individual to whom subdivision (4) does not apply, only if the financing statement provides the individual name of the debtor or the surname and first personal name of the debtor; and

(6) in other cases:

(A) if the debtor has a name, only if it provides the individual or organizational name of the debtor; and

(B) if the debtor does not have a name, only if it provides the names of the partners, members, associates, or other persons comprising the debtor in a manner that each name provided would be sufficient if the person named were the debtor.

(b) A financing statement that provides the name of the debtor in accordance with subsection (a) is not rendered ineffective by the absence of:

(1) a trade name or other name of the debtor; or

(2) unless required under subsection (a)(6)(B), names of partners, members, associates, or other persons comprising the debtor.

(c) A financing statement that provides only the debtor's trade name does not sufficiently provide the name of the debtor.

(d) Failure to indicate the representative capacity of a secured party or representative of a secured party does not affect the sufficiency of a financing statement.

(e) A financing statement may provide the name of more than one (1) debtor and the name of more than one (1) secured party.

(f) The name of the decedent indicated on the order appointing the personal representative of the decedent issued by the court having jurisdiction over the collateral is sufficient as the "name of the decedent" under subsection (a)(2).

(g) If this state has issued to an individual more than one (1) driver's license or identification card of a kind described in subsection (a)(4), the one (1) that was issued most recently is the one (1) to which subsection (a)(4) refers.

(h) In this section, "name of the settlor or testator" means:

(1) if the settlor is a registered organization, the name that is stated to be the settlor's name on the public organic record most recently filed with or issued or enacted by the settlor's jurisdiction of organization which purports to state, amend, or restate the settlor's name; or

(2) in other cases, the name of the settlor or testator indicated in the trust's organic record.

IC 26-1-9.1-504

Indication of collateral

Sec. 504. A financing statement sufficiently indicates the collateral that it covers if the financing statement provides:

- (1) a description of the collateral pursuant to IC 26-1-9.1-108; or
- (2) an indication that the financing statement covers all assets or all personal property.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-505

Filing and compliance with other statutes and treaties for consignments, leases, other bailments, and other transactions

Sec. 505. (a) A consignor, lessor, or other bailor of goods or a buyer of a payment intangible or a promissory note may file a financing statement, or may comply with a statute or treaty described in IC 26-1-9.1-311(a), using the terms "consignor", "consignee", "lessor", "lessee", "bailor", "bailee", "licensor", "licensee", "owner", "registered owner", "buyer", "seller", or words of similar import, instead of the terms "secured party" and "debtor".

(b) IC 26-1-9.1-501 through IC 26-1-9.1-527 apply to the filing of a financing statement under subsection (a) and, as appropriate, to compliance that is equivalent to filing a financing statement under IC 26-1-9.1-311(b), but the filing or compliance is not of itself a factor in determining whether the collateral secures an obligation. If it is determined for another reason that the collateral secures an obligation, a security interest held by the consignor, lessor, bailor, owner, or buyer which attaches to the collateral is perfected by the filing or compliance.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-506

Effect of errors or omissions

Sec. 506. (a) A financing statement substantially satisfying the requirements of IC 26-1-9.1-501 through IC 26-1-9.1-527 is effective, even if it has minor errors or omissions, unless the errors or omissions make the financing statement seriously misleading.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a financing statement that fails sufficiently to provide the name of the debtor in accordance with IC 26-1-9.1-503(a) is seriously misleading.

(c) If a search of the records of the filing office under the debtor's correct name, using the filing office's standard search logic, if any, would disclose a financing statement that fails to sufficiently provide the name of the debtor in accordance with IC 26-1-9.1-503(a), the name provided does not make the financing statement seriously misleading.

(d) For purposes of IC 26-1-9.1-508(b), the "debtor's correct name" in subsection (c) means the correct name of the new debtor. As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45. Amended by P.L.165-2001, SEC.13.

IC 26-1-9.1-507

Effect of certain events on effectiveness of financing statement

Sec. 507. (a) A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral that is sold, exchanged, leased, licensed, or otherwise disposed of and in which a security interest or agricultural lien continues, even if the secured party knows of or consents to the disposition.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) and IC 26-1-9.1-508, a financing statement is not rendered ineffective if, after the financing statement is filed, the information provided in the financing statement becomes seriously misleading under IC 26-1-9.1-506.

(c) If the name that a filed financing statement provides for a debtor becomes insufficient as the name of the debtor under IC 26-1-9.1-503(a) so that the financing statement becomes seriously misleading under IC 26-1-9.1-506:

(1) the financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor before, or within four (4) months after, the filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading; and

(2) the financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four (4) months after the filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, unless an amendment to the financing statement which renders the financing statement not seriously misleading is filed within four months (4) after the financing statement became seriously misleading.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45. Amended by P.L.54-2011, SEC.14.

IC 26-1-9.1-508

Effectiveness of financing statement if new debtor becomes bound by security agreement

Sec. 508. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a filed financing statement naming an original debtor is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral in which a new debtor has or acquires rights to the extent that the financing statement would have been effective had the original debtor acquired rights in the collateral.

(b) If the difference between the name of the original debtor and that of the new debtor causes a filed financing statement that is effective under subsection (a) to be seriously misleading under IC 26-1-9.1-506:

- (1) the financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor before, and within four (4) months after, the new debtor becomes bound under IC 26-1-9.1-203(d); and
- (2) the financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor more than four (4) months after the new debtor becomes bound under IC 26-1-9.1-203(d) unless an initial financing statement providing the name of the new debtor is filed before the expiration of that time.

(c) This section does not apply to collateral as to which a filed financing statement remains effective against the new debtor under IC 26-1-9.1-507(a).

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-509

Persons entitled to file a record

Sec. 509. (a) A person may file an initial financing statement, amendment that adds collateral covered by a financing statement, or amendment that adds a debtor to a financing statement only if:

- (1) the debtor authorizes the filing in an authenticated record or under subsection (b) or (c); or
- (2) the person holds an agricultural lien that has become effective at the time of filing and the financing statement covers only collateral in which the person holds an agricultural lien.

(b) By authenticating or becoming bound as debtor by a security agreement, a debtor or new debtor authorizes the filing of an initial financing statement, and an amendment, covering:

- (1) the collateral described in the security agreement; and
- (2) property that becomes collateral under IC 26-1-9.1-315(a)(2), whether or not the security agreement expressly covers proceeds.

(c) By acquiring collateral in which a security interest or agricultural lien continues under IC 26-1-9.1-315(a)(1), a debtor authorizes the filing of an initial financing statement, and an amendment, covering the collateral and property that becomes collateral under IC 26-1-9.1-315(a)(2).

(d) A person may file an amendment other than an amendment that adds collateral covered by a financing statement or an amendment that adds a debtor to a financing statement only if:

- (1) the secured party of record authorizes the filing; or
- (2) the amendment is a termination statement for a financing statement as to which the secured party of record has failed to file or send a termination statement as required by IC 26-1-9.1-513(a) or IC 26-1-9.1-513(c), the debtor authorizes the filing, and the termination statement indicates that the debtor authorized it to be filed.

(e) If there is more than one (1) secured party of record for a financing statement, each secured party of record may authorize the filing of an amendment under subsection (d).

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45. Amended by P.L.165-2001, SEC.14; P.L.1-2010, SEC.108.

IC 26-1-9.1-510

Effectiveness of filed record

Sec. 510. (a) A filed record is effective only to the extent that it was filed by a person that may file it under IC 26-1-9.1-509.

(b) A record authorized by one secured party of record does not affect the financing statement with respect to another secured party of record.

(c) A continuation statement that is not filed within the six (6) month period prescribed by IC 26-1-9.1-515(d) is ineffective.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-511

Secured party of record

Sec. 511. (a) A secured party of record with respect to a financing statement is a person whose name is provided as the name of the secured party or a representative of the secured party in an initial financing statement that has been filed. If an initial financing statement is filed under IC 26-1-9.1-514(a), the assignee named in the initial financing statement is the secured party of record with respect to the financing statement.

(b) If an amendment of a financing statement that provides the name of a person as a secured party or a representative of a secured party is filed, the person named in the amendment is a secured party of record. If an amendment is filed under IC 26-1-9.1-514(b), the assignee named in the amendment is a secured party of record.

(c) A person remains a secured party of record until the filing of an amendment of the financing statement that deletes the person.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-512

Amendment of financing statement

Sec. 512. (a) Subject to IC 26-1-9.1-509, a person may add or delete collateral covered by, continue or terminate the effectiveness of, or, subject to subsection (e), otherwise amend the information provided in, a financing statement by filing an amendment that:

(1) identifies, by its file number, the initial financing statement to which the amendment relates; and

(2) if the amendment relates to an initial financing statement filed or recorded in a filing office described in IC 26-1-9.1-501(a)(1), provides the information specified in

IC 26-1-9.1-502(b).

(b) Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-515, the filing of an amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of the financing statement.

(c) A financing statement that is amended by an amendment that adds collateral is effective as to the added collateral only from the date of the filing of the amendment.

(d) A financing statement that is amended by an amendment that adds a debtor is effective as to the added debtor only from the date of the filing of the amendment.

(e) An amendment is ineffective to the extent it:

(1) purports to delete all debtors and fails to provide the name of a debtor to be covered by the financing statement; or

(2) purports to delete all secured parties of record and fails to provide the name of a new secured party of record.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-513

Termination statement

Sec. 513. (a) A secured party shall cause the secured party of record for a financing statement to file a termination statement for the financing statement if the financing statement covers consumer goods and:

(1) there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value; or

(2) the debtor did not authorize the filing of the initial financing statement.

(b) To comply with subsection (a), a secured party shall cause the secured party of record to file the termination statement:

(1) within one (1) month after there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value; or

(2) if earlier, within twenty (20) days after the secured party receives an authenticated demand from a debtor.

(c) In cases not governed by subsection (a), within twenty (20) days after a secured party receives an authenticated demand from a debtor, the secured party shall cause the secured party of record for a financing statement to send to the debtor a termination statement for the financing statement or file the termination statement in the filing office if:

(1) except in the case of a financing statement covering accounts or chattel paper that has been sold or goods that are the subject of a consignment, there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value;

- (2) the financing statement covers accounts or chattel paper that has been sold but as to which the account debtor or other person obligated has discharged its obligation;
- (3) the financing statement covers goods that were the subject of a consignment to the debtor but are not in the debtor's possession; or
- (4) the debtor did not authorize the filing of the initial financing statement.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-510, upon the filing of a termination statement with the filing office, the financing statement to which the termination statement relates ceases to be effective. Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-510, for purposes of IC 26-1-9.1-519(g), IC 26-1-9.1-522(a), and IC 26-1-9.1-523(c), the filing with the filing office of a termination statement relating to a financing statement that indicates that the debtor is a transmitting utility also causes the effectiveness of the financing statement to lapse.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-514

Assignment of powers of secured party of record

Sec. 514. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), an initial financing statement may reflect an assignment of all of the secured party's power to authorize an amendment to the financing statement by providing the name and mailing address of the assignee as the name and address of the secured party.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a secured party of record may assign of record all or part of its power to authorize an amendment to a financing statement by filing in the filing office an amendment of the financing statement which:

- (1) identifies, by its file number, the initial financing statement to which it relates;
- (2) provides the name of the assignor; and
- (3) provides the name and mailing address of the assignee.

(c) An assignment of record of a security interest in a fixture covered by a record of a mortgage which is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing under IC 26-1-9.1-502(c) may be made only by an assignment of record of the mortgage in the manner provided by law of this state other than IC 26-1.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-515

Duration and effectiveness of financing statement; effect of lapsed financing statement

Sec. 515. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b), (e), (f), and (g), a filed financing statement is effective for a period of five (5) years after the date of filing.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (e), (f), and (g), an initial financing statement filed in connection with a public-finance transaction or manufactured-home transaction is effective for a period of thirty (30) years after the date of filing if it indicates that it is filed in connection with a public-finance transaction or manufactured-home transaction.

(c) The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of the period of its effectiveness unless, before the lapse, a continuation statement is filed pursuant to subsection (d). Upon lapse, a financing statement ceases to be effective and any security interest or agricultural lien that was perfected by the financing statement becomes unperfected, unless the security interest is perfected otherwise. If the security interest or agricultural lien becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is considered never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(d) A continuation statement may be filed only within six (6) months before the expiration of the five (5) year period specified in subsection (a) or the thirty (30) year period specified in subsection (b), whichever is applicable.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-510, upon timely filing of a continuation statement, the effectiveness of the initial financing statement continues for a period of five (5) years commencing on the day on which the financing statement would have become ineffective in the absence of the filing. Upon the expiration of the five (5) year period, the financing statement lapses in the same manner as provided in subsection (c), unless, before the lapse, another continuation statement is filed pursuant to subsection (d). Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the initial financing statement.

(f) If a debtor is a transmitting utility and a filed initial financing statement so indicates, the financing statement is effective until a termination statement is filed.

(g) A record of a mortgage that is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing under IC 26-1-9.1-502(c) remains effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real property.

IC 26-1-9.1-516

What constitutes filing; effectiveness of filing

Sec. 516. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) or section 901 of this chapter, communication of a record to a filing office and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the record by the filing office constitutes filing.

(b) Filing does not occur with respect to a record that a filing office refuses to accept because:

- (1) the record is not communicated by a method or medium of communication authorized by the filing office;
 - (2) an amount equal to or greater than the applicable filing fee is not tendered;
 - (3) the filing office is unable to index the record because:
 - (A) in the case of an initial financing statement, the record does not provide a name for the debtor;
 - (B) in the case of an amendment or information statement, the record:
 - (i) does not identify the initial financing statement as required by IC 26-1-9.1-512 or IC 26-1-9.1-518, as applicable; or
 - (ii) identifies an initial financing statement whose effectiveness has lapsed under IC 26-1-9.1-515;
 - (C) in the case of an initial financing statement that provides the name of a debtor identified as an individual or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor identified as an individual which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the record relates, the record does not identify the debtor's surname; or
 - (D) in the case of a record recorded in the filing office described in IC 26-1-9.1-501(a)(1), the record does not provide a sufficient description of the real property to which it relates;
 - (4) in the case of an initial financing statement or an amendment that adds a secured party of record, the record does not provide a name and mailing address for the secured party of record;
 - (5) in the case of an initial financing statement or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor that was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the amendment relates, the record does not:
 - (A) provide a mailing address for the debtor; or
 - (B) indicate whether the name provided as the name of the debtor is the name of an individual or an organization;

Sec. 519. (a) For each record filed in a filing office, the filing office shall:

- (1) assign a unique number to the filed record;
- (2) create a record that bears the number assigned to the filed record and the date and time of filing;
- (3) maintain the filed record for public inspection; and
- (4) index the filed record in accordance with subsections (c), (d), and (e).

(b) A file number must include a digit that:

- (1) is mathematically derived from or related to the other digits of the file number; and
- (2) aids the filing office in determining whether a number communicated as the file number includes a single-digit or transpositional error.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (d) and (e), the filing office shall:

- (1) index an initial financing statement according to the name of the debtor and index all filed records relating to the initial financing statement in a manner that associates with one another an initial financing statement and all filed records relating to the initial financing statement; and
- (2) index a record that provides a name of a debtor that was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the record relates also according to the name that was not previously provided.

(d) If a financing statement is filed as a fixture filing or covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, the filing office shall index it:

- (1) under the names of the debtor and of each owner of record shown on the financing statement as if they were the mortgagors under a mortgage of the real property described; and
- (2) to the extent that the law of this state provides for indexing of records of mortgages under the name of the mortgagee, under the name of the secured party as if the secured party were the mortgagee thereunder, or, if indexing is by description, as if the financing statement were a record of a mortgage of the real property described.

(e) If a financing statement is filed as a fixture filing or covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, the filing office shall index an assignment filed under IC 26-1-9.1-514(a) or an amendment filed under IC 26-1-9.1-514(b):

(f) The filing office shall maintain a capability:

(2) to associate and retrieve with one another an initial financing statement and each filed record relating to the initial financing statement.

(g) The filing office may not remove a debtor's name from the index until one (1) year after the effectiveness of a financing statement naming the debtor lapses under IC 26-1-9.1-515 with respect to all secured parties of record.

(h) The filing office shall perform the acts required by subsections (a) through (e) at the time and in the manner prescribed by filing-office rule, but not later than two (2) business days after the filing office receives the record in question.

The communication must be made at the time and in the manner prescribed by filing-office rule, but in the case of a filing office described in IC 26-1-9.1-501(a)(2), in no event more than two (2) business days after the filing office receives the record.

(c) A filed financing statement satisfying IC 26-1-9.1-502(a) and IC 26-1-9.1-502(b) is effective, even if the filing office is required to refuse to accept it for filing under subsection (a). However, IC 26-1-9.1-338 applies to a filed financing statement providing information described in IC 26-1-9.1-516(b)(5) that is incorrect at the time the financing statement is filed.

(d) If a record communicated to a filing office provides information that relates to more than one (1) debtor, IC 26-1-9.1-501 through IC 26-1-9.1-527 apply as to each debtor separately.

- (3) if the collateral is consumer goods, the collateral is not in the possession of the debtor when the debtor consents to the acceptance; and

(4) subsection (e) does not require the secured party to dispose of the collateral or the debtor waives the requirement pursuant to IC 26-1-9.1-624.

(b) A purported or apparent acceptance of collateral under this section is ineffective unless:

- (1) the secured party consents to the acceptance in an authenticated record or sends a proposal to the debtor; and
 - (2) the conditions of subsection (a) are met.
- (c) For purposes of this section:
- (1) a debtor consents to an acceptance of collateral in partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures only if the debtor agrees to the terms of the acceptance in a record authenticated after default; and
 - (2) a debtor consents to an acceptance of collateral in full satisfaction of the obligation it secures only if the debtor agrees to the terms of the acceptance in a record authenticated after default or the secured party:
 - (A) sends to the debtor after default a proposal that is unconditional or subject only to a condition that collateral not in the possession of the secured party be preserved or maintained;
 - (B) in the proposal, proposes to accept collateral in full satisfaction of the obligation it secures; and
 - (C) does not receive a notification of objection authenticated by the debtor within twenty (20) days after the proposal is sent.
- (d) To be effective under subsection (a)(2), a notification of objection must be received by the secured party:
- (1) in the case of a person to which the proposal was sent pursuant to IC 26-1-9.1-621, within twenty (20) days after notification was sent to that person; and
 - (2) in other cases:
 - (A) within twenty (20) days after the last notification was sent pursuant to IC 26-1-9.1-621; or
 - (B) if a notification was not sent, before the debtor consents to the acceptance under subsection (c).
- (e) A secured party that has taken possession of collateral shall dispose of the collateral pursuant to IC 26-1-9.1-610 within the time specified in subsection (f) if:
- (1) sixty percent (60%) of the cash price has been paid in the case of a purchase-money security interest in consumer goods; or
 - (2) sixty percent (60%) of the principal amount of the obligation secured has been paid in the case of a non-purchase-money security interest in consumer goods.
- (f) To comply with subsection (e), the secured party shall dispose of the collateral:
- (1) within ninety (90) days after taking possession; or
 - (2) within any longer period to which the debtor and all secondary obligors have agreed in an agreement to that effect entered into and authenticated after default.
- (g) In a consumer transaction, a secured party may not accept collateral in partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures.

Sec. 621. (a) A secured party that desires to accept collateral in full or partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures shall send its proposal to:

- (1) any person from which the secured party has received, before the debtor consented to the acceptance, an authenticated notification of a claim of an interest in the collateral;
- (2) any other secured party or lienholder that, ten (10) days before the debtor consented to the acceptance, held a security interest in or other lien on the collateral perfected by the filing of a financing statement that:
 - (A) identified the collateral;
 - (B) was indexed under the debtor's name as of that date; and
 - (C) was filed in the office or offices in which to file a financing statement against the debtor covering the collateral as of that date; and
- (3) any other secured party that, ten (10) days before the debtor consented to the acceptance, held a security interest in the collateral perfected by compliance with a statute, regulation, or treaty described in IC 26-1-9.1-311(a).

(b) A secured party that desires to accept collateral in partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures shall send its proposal to any secondary obligor in addition to the persons described in subsection (a).

IC 26-1-9.1-622

Effect of acceptance of collateral

Sec. 622. (a) A secured party's acceptance of collateral in full or partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures:

- (1) discharges the obligation to the extent consented to by the debtor;
- (2) transfers to the secured party all of a debtor's rights in the collateral;
- (3) discharges the security interest or agricultural lien that is the subject of the debtor's consent and any subordinate security interest or other subordinate lien; and
- (4) terminates any other subordinate interest.

(b) A subordinate interest is discharged or terminated under subsection (a), even if the secured party fails to comply with IC 26-1-9.1.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-623

Right to redeem collateral

Sec. 623. (a) A debtor, any secondary obligor, or any other secured party or lienholder may redeem collateral.

(b) To redeem collateral, a person shall tender:

- (1) fulfillment of all obligations secured by the collateral; and
- (2) the reasonable expenses and attorney's fees described in IC 26-1-9.1-615(a)(1).

(c) A redemption may occur at any time before a secured party:

- (1) has collected collateral under IC 26-1-9.1-607;
- (2) has disposed of collateral or entered into a contract for its disposition under IC 26-1-9.1-610; or
- (3) has accepted collateral in full or partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures under IC 26-1-9.1-622.

IC 26-1-9.1-624

Waiver

Sec. 624. (a) A debtor or secondary obligor may waive the right to notification of disposition of collateral under IC 26-1-9.1-611 only by an agreement to that effect entered into and authenticated after default.

(b) A debtor may waive the right to require disposition of collateral under IC 26-1-9.1-620(e) only by an agreement to that effect entered into and authenticated after default.

(c) Except in a consumer-goods transaction, a debtor or secondary obligor may waive the right to redeem collateral under IC 26-1-9.1-623 only by an agreement to that effect entered into and authenticated after default.

IC 26-1-9.1-625

Remedies for secured party's failure to comply with chapter

Sec. 625. (a) If it is established that a secured party is not proceeding in accordance with IC 26-1-9.1, a court may order or restrain collection, enforcement, or disposition of collateral on appropriate terms and conditions.

(b) Subject to subsections (c), (d), and (f), a person is liable for damages in the amount of any loss caused by a failure to comply with IC 26-1-9.1. Loss caused by a failure to comply may include loss resulting from the debtor's inability to obtain, or increased costs of, alternative financing.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-628:

- (1) a person that, at the time of the failure, was a debtor, was an obligor, or held a security interest in or other lien on the collateral may recover damages under subsection (b) for its loss; and
- (2) if the collateral is consumer goods, a person that was a debtor or a secondary obligor at the time a secured party failed to comply with IC 26-1-9.1-601 through IC 26-1-9.1-628 may recover for that failure in any event an amount not less than the credit service charge plus ten percent (10%) of the principal amount of the obligation or the time-price differential plus ten percent (10%) of the cash price.

(d) A debtor whose deficiency is eliminated under IC 26-1-9.1-626 may recover damages for the loss of any surplus. However, a debtor or secondary obligor whose deficiency is eliminated or reduced under IC 26-1-9.1-626 may not otherwise recover under subsection (b) for noncompliance with the provisions of IC 26-1-9.1-601 through IC 26-1-9.1-628 relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance.

(e) In addition to any damages recoverable under subsection (b), the debtor, consumer obligor, or person named as a debtor in a filed record, as applicable, may recover five hundred dollars ($500) in each case from a person that:

- (1) fails to comply with IC 26-1-9.1-208;
- (2) fails to comply with IC 26-1-9.1-209;
- (3) files a record that the person is not entitled to file under IC 26-1-9.1-509(a);
- (4) fails to cause the secured party of record to file or send a termination statement as required by IC 26-1-9.1-513(a) or IC 26-1-9.1-513(c);
- (5) fails to comply with IC 26-1-9.1-616(b)(1) and whose failure is part of a pattern or consistent with a practice, of noncompliance;
- (6) fails to comply with IC 26-1-9.1-616(b)(2); or
- (7) fails to comply with IC 26-1-9.1-502(f).

(f) A debtor or consumer obligor may recover damages under subsection (b) and, in addition, five hundred dollars ($500) in each case from a person that, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with a request under IC 26-1-9.1-210. A recipient of a request under IC 26-1-9.1-210 that never claimed an interest in the collateral or obligations that are the subject of a request under that section has a reasonable excuse for failure to comply with the request within the meaning of this subsection.

(g) If a secured party fails to comply with a request regarding a list of collateral or a statement of account under IC 26-1-9.1-210, the secured party may claim a security interest only as shown in the list or statement included in the request as against a person that is reasonably misled by the failure.

IC 26-1-9.1-626

Action in which deficiency or surplus is in issue

Sec. 626. In an action arising from a transaction in which the amount of a deficiency or surplus is in issue, the following rules apply:

(1) A secured party need not prove compliance with the provisions of IC 26-1-9.1-601 through IC 26-1-9.1-628 relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance unless the debtor or a secondary obligor places the secured party's compliance in issue.

(2) If the secured party's compliance is placed in issue, the secured party has the burden of establishing that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was conducted in accordance with IC 26-1-9.1-601 through IC 26-1-9.1-628.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-628, if a secured party fails to prove that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was conducted in accordance with the provisions of IC 26-1-9.1-601 through IC 26-1-9.1-628 relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance, the liability of a debtor or a secondary obligor for a deficiency is limited to an amount by which the sum of the secured obligation, expenses, and attorney's fees exceeds the greater of:

(A) the proceeds of the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance; or

(B) the amount of proceeds that would have been realized had the noncomplying secured party proceeded in accordance with the provisions of IC 26-1-9.1-601 through IC 26-1-9.1-628 relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance.

(4) For purposes of subdivision (3)(B), the amount of proceeds that would have been realized is equal to the sum of the secured obligation, expenses, and attorney's fees unless the secured party proves that the amount is less than that sum.

(5) If a deficiency or surplus is calculated under IC 26-1-9.1-615(f), the debtor or obligor has the burden of establishing that the amount of proceeds of the disposition is significantly below the range of prices that a complying disposition to a person other than the secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor would have brought.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45. Amended by P.L.165-2001, SEC.19.

IC 26-1-9.1-627

Determination of whether conduct was commercially reasonable

Sec. 627. (a) The fact that a greater amount could have been obtained by a collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the secured party is not of itself sufficient to preclude the secured party from establishing that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was made in a commercially reasonable manner.

(b) A disposition of collateral is made in a commercially reasonable manner if the disposition is made:

- (1) in the usual manner on any recognized market;
- (2) at the price current in any recognized market at the time of the disposition; or
- (3) otherwise in conformity with reasonable commercial practices among dealers in the type of property that was the subject of the disposition.

(c) A collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance is commercially reasonable if it has been approved:

- (1) in a judicial proceeding;
- (2) by a bona fide creditors' committee;
- (3) by a representative of creditors; or
- (4) by an assignee for the benefit of creditors.

(d) Approval under subsection (c) need not be obtained, and lack of approval does not mean that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance is not commercially reasonable.

IC 26-1-9.1-628

Nonliability and limitation on liability of secured party; liability of secondary obligor

Sec. 628. (a) Unless a secured party knows that a person is a debtor or obligor, knows the identity of the person, and knows how to communicate with the person:

- (1) the secured party is not liable to the person, or to a secured party or lienholder that has filed a financing statement against the person, for failure to comply with IC 26-1-9.1; and
- (2) the secured party's failure to comply with IC 26-1-9.1 does not affect the liability of the person for a deficiency.

(b) A secured party is not liable because of its status as secured party:

- (1) to a person that is a debtor or obligor, unless the secured party knows:
 - (A) that the person is a debtor or obligor;
 - (B) the identity of the person; and
 - (C) how to communicate with the person; or
- (2) to a secured party or lienholder that has filed a financing statement against a person, unless the secured party knows:
 - (A) that the person is a debtor; and
 - (B) the identity of the person.

(c) A secured party is not liable to any person, and a person's liability for a deficiency is not affected, because of any act or omission arising out of the secured party's reasonable belief that a transaction is not a consumer-goods transaction or a consumer transaction or that goods are not consumer goods, if the secured party's belief is based on its reasonable reliance on:

- (1) a debtor's representation concerning the purpose for which collateral was to be used, acquired, or held; or
- (2) an obligor's representation concerning the purpose for which a secured obligation was incurred.

(d) A secured party is not liable to any person under IC 26-1-9.1-625(c)(2) for its failure to comply with IC 26-1-9.1-616.

(e) A secured party is not liable under IC 26-1-9.1-625(c)(2) more than once with respect to any one secured obligation.

Effective date

Sec. 701. IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect on July 1, 2001.

IC 26-1-9.1-702

Savings clause

Sec. 702. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section through section 709 of this chapter, IC 26-1-9.1 applies to a transaction or lien within its scope, even if the transaction or lien was entered into or created before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) and IC 26-1-9.1-703 through IC 26-1-9.1-709:

(1) transactions and liens that were not governed by IC 26-1-9, before its repeal, were validly entered into or created before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect, and would be subject to IC 26-1-9.1 if they had been entered into or created after IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect, and the rights, duties, and interests flowing from those transactions and liens remain valid after IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect; and

(2) the transactions and liens may be terminated, completed, consummated, and enforced as required or permitted by IC 26-1-9.1 or by the law that otherwise would apply if IC 26-1-9.1 had not taken effect.

(c) IC 26-1-9.1 does not affect an action, case, or proceeding commenced before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-703

Security interest perfected before effective date

Sec. 703. (a) A security interest that is enforceable immediately before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect and would have priority over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time is a perfected security interest under IC 26-1-9.1 if, when IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect, the applicable requirements for enforceability and perfection under IC 26-1-9.1 are satisfied without further action.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-705, if, immediately before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect, a security interest is enforceable and would have priority over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time, but the applicable requirements for enforceability or perfection under IC 26-1-9.1 are not satisfied when IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect, the security interest:

- (1) is a perfected security interest for one (1) year after IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect;
- (2) remains enforceable thereafter only if the security interest becomes enforceable under IC 26-1-9.1-203 before the year expires; and
- (3) remains perfected thereafter only if the applicable requirements for perfection under IC 26-1-9.1 are satisfied before the year expires.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-704

Security interest unperfected before effective date

Sec. 704. A security interest that is enforceable immediately before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect but which would be subordinate to the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time:

- (1) remains an enforceable security interest for one (1) year after IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect;
- (2) remains enforceable thereafter if the security interest becomes enforceable under IC 26-1-9.1-203 when IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect or within one (1) year thereafter; and
- (3) becomes perfected:
 - (A) without further action, when IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect if the applicable requirements for perfection under IC 26-1-9.1 are satisfied before or at that time; or
 - (B) when the applicable requirements for perfection are satisfied if the requirements are satisfied after that time.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-705

Effectiveness of action taken before effective date

Sec. 705. (a) If action, other than the filing of a financing statement, is taken before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect and the action would have resulted in priority of a security interest over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor had the security interest become enforceable before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect, the action is effective to perfect a security interest that attaches under IC 26-1-9.1 within one (1) year after IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect. An attached security interest becomes unperfected one (1) year after IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect unless the security interest becomes a perfected security interest under IC 26-1-9.1 before the expiration of that period.

(b) The filing of a financing statement before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect is effective to perfect a security interest to the extent the filing would satisfy the applicable requirements for perfection under IC 26-1-9.1.

(c) IC 26-1-9.1 does not render ineffective an effective financing statement that is filed before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect and satisfied the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in IC 26-1-9-103, before its repeal. However, except as otherwise provided in subsections (d) and (e) and IC 26-1-9.1-706, the financing statement ceases to be effective at the earlier of:

- (1) the time the financing statement would have ceased to be effective under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is filed; or
- (2) June 30, 2006.

(d) The filing of a continuation statement after IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect does not continue the effectiveness of the financing statement filed before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect. However, upon the timely filing of a continuation statement after IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect and in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in IC 26-1-9.1-301 through IC 26-1-9.1-342, the effectiveness of a financing statement filed in the same office in that jurisdiction before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect continues for the period provided by the law of that jurisdiction.

(e) Subsection (c)(2) applies to a financing statement that is filed against a transmitting utility before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect and satisfied the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in IC 26-1-9-103, before its repeal, only to the extent that IC 26-1-9.1-301 through IC 26-1-9.1-342 provide that the law of a jurisdiction other than jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed governs perfection of a security interest in collateral covered by the financing statement.

(f) A financing statement that includes a financing statement filed before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect and a continuation statement filed after IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect is effective only to the extent that it satisfies the requirements of IC 26-1-9.1-501 through IC 26-1-9.1-527 for an initial financing statement.

IC 26-1-9.1-706

Filing of initial financing statement; effectiveness of financing statement

Sec. 706. (a) The filing of an initial financing statement in the office specified in IC 26-1-9.1-501 continues the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect if:

- (1) the filing of an initial financing statement in that office would be effective to perfect a security interest under IC 26-1-9.1;
- (2) the pre-effective-date financing statement was filed in an office in another state or another office in this state; and
- (3) the initial financing statement satisfies subsection (c).

(b) The filing of an initial financing statement under subsection (a) continues the effectiveness of the pre-effective date financing statement if the initial financing statement is filed:

- (1) before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect, for the period provided in IC 26-1-9-403 (before its repeal) for a financing statement; and
- (2) after IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect, for the period provided in IC 26-1-9.1-515 for an initial financing statement.

(c) To be effective for purposes of subsection (a), an initial financing statement must:

- (1) satisfy the requirements of IC 26-1-9.1-501 through IC 26-1-9.1-526 for an initial financing statement;
- (2) identify the pre-effective-date financing statement by indicating the office in which the financing statement was filed and providing the dates of filing and file numbers, if any, of the financing statement and of the most recent continuation statement filed with respect to the financing statement; and
- (3) indicate that the pre-effective-date financing statement remains effective.

IC 26-1-9.1-707

Pre-effective-date financing statement

Sec. 707. (a) In this section, "pre-effective-date financing statement" means a financing statement filed before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect.

(b) After IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect, a person may add or delete collateral covered by, continue, or terminate the effectiveness of, or otherwise amend the information provided in, a pre-effective-date financing statement only in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided under IC 26-1-9.1-301 through IC 26-1-9.1-342. However, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement also may be terminated in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), if Indiana law governs perfection of a security interest, the information in a pre-effective-date financing statement may be amended after IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect only if:

- (1) the pre-effective date financing statement and an amendment are filed in the office specified in IC 26-1-9.1-501;
- (2) an amendment is filed in the office specified in IC 26-1-9.1-501 concurrently with, or after the filing in that office of, an initial financing statement that satisfies IC 26-1-9.1-706(c); or
- (3) an initial financing statement that provides the information as amended and satisfies IC 26-1-9.1-706(c) is filed in the office specified in IC 26-1-9.1-501.

(d) If Indiana law governs the perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement may be continued only under IC 26-1-9.1-705(d) and IC 26-1-9.1-705(f) or

IC 26-1-9.1-706.

(e) Whether or not Indiana law governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement filed in Indiana may be terminated after IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect by filing a termination statement in the office in which the pre-effective-date financing statement is filed, unless an initial financing statement that satisfies IC 26-1-9.1-706(c) has been filed in the office specified by the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection in IC 26-1-9.1-301 through IC 26-1-9.1-342 as the office in which to file a financing statement.

IC 26-1-9.1-708

Persons entitled to file initial financing statement or continuation statement

Sec. 708. A person may file an initial financing statement or a continuation statement under IC 26-1-9.1-701 through IC 26-1-9.1-709 if:

- (1) the secured party of record authorizes the filing; and
- (2) the filing is necessary under IC 26-1-9.1-701 through IC 26-1-9.1-709:
 - (A) to continue the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect; or
 - (B) to perfect or continue the perfection of a security interest.

As added by P.L.57-2000, SEC.45.

IC 26-1-9.1-709

Priority

Sec. 709. (a) IC 26-1-9, before its repeal, determines the priority of conflicting claims to collateral if the relative priorities of the claims were established before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect. In other cases, IC 26-1-9.1 determines priority.

(b) For purposes of IC 26-1-9.1-322(a), the priority of a security interest that becomes enforceable under IC 26-1-9.1-203 dates from the time IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect if the security interest is perfected under IC 26-1-9.1 by the filing of a financing statement before IC 26-1-9.1 takes effect which would not have been effective to perfect the security interest under IC 26-1-9, before its repeal. This subsection does not apply to conflicting security interests each of which is perfected by the filing of such a financing statement.

lien was entered into or created before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013).

(b) The amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 do not affect an action, case, or proceeding commenced before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013).

Sec. 802. (a) A security interest that is a perfected security interest immediately before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013) is a perfected security interest under this chapter, as amended by P.L.54-2011 if, when the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013), the applicable requirements for attachment and perfection under this chapter, as amended by P.L.54-2011, are satisfied without further action.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in IC 26-1-9.1-804, if, immediately before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013), a security interest is a perfected security interest, but the applicable requirements for perfection under this chapter, as amended by P.L.54-2011, are not satisfied when the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013), the security interest remains perfected thereafter only if the applicable requirements for perfection under this chapter, as amended by P.L.54-2011, are satisfied within one (1) year after the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013).

IC 26-1-9.1-803

Security interest unperfected before July 1, 2013

Sec. 803. A security interest that is an unperfected security interest immediately before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013) becomes a perfected security interest:

(1) without further action, when the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013) if the applicable requirements for perfection under this chapter, as amended by P.L.54-2011, are satisfied before or at that time; or

(2) when the applicable requirements for perfection are satisfied if the requirements are satisfied after this time.

As added by P.L.54-2011, SEC.22. Amended by P.L.6-2012, SEC.180.

IC 26-1-9.1-804

Effectiveness of action taken before July 1, 2013

Sec. 804. (a) The filing of a financing statement before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013) is effective to perfect a security interest to the extent the filing would satisfy the applicable requirements for perfection under this chapter, as amended by P.L.54-2011.

(b) The amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 do not render ineffective an effective financing statement that, before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013), is filed and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection provided in this chapter as it existed before it was amended by P.L.54-2011. However, except as otherwise provided in subsections (c) and (d) and IC 26-1-9.1-805, the financing statement ceases to be effective:

- (1) if the financing statement is filed in this state, at the time the financing statement would have ceased to be effective had the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 not taken effect; or
- (2) if the financing statement is filed in another jurisdiction, at the earlier of:
 - (A) the time the financing statement would have ceased to be effective under the law of that jurisdiction; or
 - (B) June 30, 2018.

(c) The filing of a continuation statement after the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013) does not continue the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013). However, upon the timely filing of a continuation statement after the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013) and in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in this chapter as amended by P.L.54-2011, the effectiveness of a financing statement filed in the same office in that jurisdiction before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013) continues for the period provided by the law of that jurisdiction.

(d) Subsection (b)(2)(B) applies to a financing statement that, before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013), is filed against a transmitting utility and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in this chapter as it existed before it was amended by P.L.54-2011, only to the extent that this chapter, as amended by P.L.54-2011, provides that the law of a jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed governs perfection of a security interest in collateral covered by the financing statement.

(e) A financing statement that includes a financing statement filed before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013) and a continuation statement filed after the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013) is effective only to the extent that it satisfies the requirements of IC 26-1-9.1-501 through IC 26-1-9.1-527, as amended by P.L.54-2011, for an initial financing statement. A financing statement that indicates that the debtor is a decedent's estate indicates that the collateral is being administered by a personal representative within the meaning of IC 26-1-9.1-503(a)(2), as amended by P.L.54-2011. A financing statement that indicates that the debtor is a trust or is a trustee acting with respect to property held in trust indicates that the collateral is held in a trust within the meaning of IC 26-1-9.1-503(a)(3) as amended by P.L.54-2011.

As added by P.L.54-2011, SEC.23. Amended by P.L.6-2012, SEC.181.

IC 26-1-9.1-805

When initial financing statement suffices to continue effectiveness of financing statement

Sec. 805. (a) The filing of an initial financing statement in the office specified in IC 26-1-9.1-501 continues the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013) if:

- (1) the filing of an initial financing statement in that office would be effective to perfect a security interest under this chapter, as amended by P.L.54-2011;
- (2) the pre-effective-date financing statement was filed in an office in another state; and
- (3) the initial financing statement satisfies subsection (c).

(b) The filing of an initial financing statement under subsection (a) continues the effectiveness of the pre-effective-date financing statement:

- (1) if the initial financing statement is filed before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013), for the period provided in IC 26-1-9.1-515, before it was amended by P.L.54-2011, with respect to an initial financing statement; and
- (2) if the initial financing statement is filed after the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013), for the period provided in IC 26-1-9.1-515, as amended by P.L.54-2011 with respect to an initial financing statement.

(c) To be effective for purposes of subsection (a), an initial financing statement must:

- (1) satisfy the requirements of IC 26-1-9.1-501 through IC 26-1-9.1-527, as amended by P.L.54-2011 for an initial financing statement;
- (2) identify the pre-effective-date financing statement by indicating the office in which the financing statement was filed and providing the dates of filing and file numbers, if any, of the financing statement and of the most recent continuation statement filed with respect to the financing statement; and

(3) indicate that the pre-effective-date financing statement remains effective.

IC 26-1-9.1-806

Amendment of financing statement filed before July 1, 2013

Sec. 806. (a) In this section, "pre-effective-date financing statement" means a financing statement filed before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013).

(b) After the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013), a person may add or delete collateral covered by, continue or terminate the effectiveness of, or otherwise amend the information provided in, a pre-effective-date financing statement only in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in this chapter, as amended by P.L.54-2011. However, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement also may be terminated in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), if the law of this state governs perfection of a security interest, the information in a pre-effective-date financing statement may be amended after the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013) only if:

- (1) the pre-effective-date financing statement and an amendment are filed in the office specified in IC 26-1-9.1-501;
- (2) an amendment is filed in the office specified in IC 26-1-9.1-501 concurrently with, or after the filing in that office of, an initial financing statement that satisfies IC 26-1-9.1-805(c); or
- (3) an initial financing statement that provides the information as amended and satisfies IC 26-1-9.1-805(c) is filed in the office specified in IC 26-1-9.1-501.

(d) If the law of this state governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement may be continued only under IC 26-1-9.1-804(c) and IC 26-1-9.1-804(e) or IC 26-1-9.1-805.

(e) Whether or not the law of this state governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement filed in this state may be terminated after the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013) by filing a termination statement in the office in which the pre-effective-date financing statement is filed, unless an initial financing statement that satisfies IC 26-1-9.1-805(c) has been filed in the office specified by the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in this chapter, as amended by P.L.54-2011, as the office in which to file a financing statement.

IC 26-1-9.1-807

Sec. 807. A person may file an initial financing statement or a continuation statement under this chapter if:

- (1) the secured party of record authorizes the filing; and
- (2) the filing is necessary under this chapter:
 - (A) to continue the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013); or
 - (B) to perfect or continue the perfection of a security interest.

IC 26-1-9.1-808

Priority

Sec. 808. The amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 determine the priority of conflicting claims to collateral. However, if the relative priorities of the claims were established before the amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011 take effect (July 1, 2013), this chapter, as it existed before amendments to this chapter made by P.L.54-2011, determines priority.
