IC 35-37-6-9

Confidential communications; compelling testimony; records; temporary emergency shelters

Sec. 9. (a) The following persons or entities may not be compelled to give testimony, to produce records, or to disclose any information concerning confidential communications and confidential information to anyone or in any judicial, legislative, or administrative proceeding:

(1) A victim.

(2) A victim advocate or victim service provider unless the victim specifically consents to the disclosure in a written authorization that contains the date the consent expires.

(b) A victim advocate, victim service provider, or victim may not be compelled to provide testimony in any judicial, legislative, or administrative proceeding that would identify the name, address, location, or telephone number of any facility that provided temporary emergency shelter to the victim of the offense or transaction that is the subject of the proceeding unless the facility is a party to the proceeding.

(c) A victim service provider or victim advocate may not require a victim to consent to the disclosure of information concerning confidential communications and confidential information as a condition of the victim receiving services.

(d) This section does not prohibit a victim from providing testimony concerning an offense.

(e) The consent to disclose information on behalf of:

(1) a child who is less than eighteen (18) years of age and is unemancipated; or

(2) an incapacitated victim;

may be made by a custodial parent, custodian, guardian, or guardian ad litem in a written authorization that contains the date the consent expires.

(f) A consent under subsection (e) may not be given by a custodial parent, custodian, guardian, or guardian ad litem of the victim if the custodial parent, custodian, guardian, or guardian ad litem:

(1) committed; or

(2) is alleged to have committed;

an offense against the victim.

IC 35-37-6-10

Waiver by victim of protections of chapter

Sec. 10. (a) A victim does not waive the protections afforded by this chapter by testifying in court about an offense. However, if the victim partially discloses the contents of a confidential communication in the course of testifying, either party may request the court to rule that justice requires the protections of this chapter to be waived, to the extent they apply to that portion of the communication.

(b) A waiver under this section applies only to the extent necessary to require any witness to respond to questions concerning the confidential communication that are relevant to the facts and circumstances of the case.

IC 35-37-6-11

Waiver by victim advocate of protection of chapter; disclosure of confidential information

Sec. 11. A victim advocate may not waive the protections afforded to a victim under this chapter. However, if:

(1) a victim brings suit against a victim advocate or victim service provider in which the victim advocate was employed or served as a volunteer at the time of the counseling relationship; and

(2) the suit alleges malpractice during the relationship;

the victim advocate may testify or produce records regarding confidential communications with the victim and is not liable for doing so.

As added by P.L.136-1987, SEC.5. Amended by P.L.104-2008, SEC.15.

IC 35-37-6-13

Authorization of release of confidential information

Sec. 13. (a) Except as provided in subsection (d):

- (1) a victim; or
- (2) in the case of a deceased victim, the victim's personal representative;

may authorize a victim advocate or victim service provider to release confidential information or other information by signing a written authorization that specifies what information will be released and to whom the information will be released.

(b) The authorization described in subsection (a) must include a date the authorization expires.

(c) A victim advocate shall make reasonable attempts to notify a victim when a victim service provider or victim advocate is required to disclose confidential information or confidential communications.

(d) A consent for release may not be given by a personal representative of the victim if the personal representative:

- (1) abused or killed the victim;
- (2) is alleged to have abused or killed the victim; or
- (3) assisted another person in abusing or killing the victim.

As added by P.L.104-2008, SEC.16.

IC 35-37-6-14

Prosecuting attorney duty to disclose; victim preserves confidentiality

Sec. 14. (a) This section does not:

- (1) relieve a prosecuting attorney of the constitutional and ethical obligation to disclose exculpatory evidence; and
- (2) prohibit impeachment of a victim as permitted by the Indiana Rules of Evidence.

(b) A victim does not waive any privileges or confidentiality protections under this chapter if the victim:

- (1) testifies about underlying acts of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking; or
- (2) reveals that he or she used or attempted to use the services of a victim service provider or victim advocate.

As added by P.L.104-2008, SEC.17.

IC 35-37-6-15

Partial disclosure

Sec. 15. The partial disclosure of a confidential communication under this chapter does not waive any privilege concerning the remainder of the confidential communication.

As added by P.L.104-2008, SEC.18.

IC 35-37-6-16

Refusal to testify

Sec. 16. The fact that a victim or victim advocate refuses to testify or disclose information because of a privilege under this chapter does not raise any negative inferences or presumptions.

As added by P.L.104-2008, SEC.19.

IC 35-37-6-17

Disclosure of information in aggregate form

Sec. 17. A victim service provider may disclose information in the aggregate that does not identify a victim regarding services and demographic information to comply with federal or state data collection requirements.
