

164.0206 Public postsecondary education institution's program in speech-language pathology and teacher education.

A public postsecondary education institution with a degree program in speech-language pathology and a teacher education program, under the direction of the Council on Postsecondary Education, and in consultation with the Education Professional Standards Board and the Kentucky Board of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology, shall:

- (1) Align the programs of studies for speech-language pathology and teacher education to permit a student to successfully prepare for licensure as a speech-language pathology assistant and certification as a bachelor's level teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders;
- (2) Increase the number of qualified students accepted into programs leading to licensure as a speech-language pathologist or speech-language pathology assistant and certification as a teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders, subject to:
 - (a) Requirements for program certification by national certifying bodies, including, but not limited to, student to faculty ratios;
 - (b) The strategic plans of the Council on Postsecondary Education and the postsecondary education institution; and
 - (c) The budgetary considerations of the postsecondary education institution.
- (3) Provide expanded opportunities for speech-language pathology assistants working in public schools to pursue licensure as a speech-language pathologist and certification as a teacher of exceptional children/communication disorders, which may include:
 - (a) Expanded opportunities for admission to on-campus programs;
 - (b) The development and expansion of distance learning opportunities in collaboration with the Kentucky Commonwealth Virtual University; and
 - (c) Admissions requirements that take into account successful professional experience as a speech-language pathology assistant in lieu of other admissions requirements.
