

197.130 Prisoners not to be required to work outside prison -- Exceptions.

- (1) Prisoners confined in the penitentiaries shall not be required to work outside of the walls or enclosures of the prison except:
 - (a) On the construction or maintenance of public roads and bridges;
 - (b) On the making and preparing of materials for public roads and bridges;
 - (c) On work upon the public works of the state;
 - (d) On state farms; or
 - (e) During pestilence or in the case of the destruction of prison buildings when such prisoners cannot be confined within the prison walls or enclosures.
- (2) Prisoners shall not be used in any county for work in the construction, improvement or maintenance of any highway without the consent of the fiscal court of the county.

Effective: October 1, 1942

History: Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. sec. 3828b-13.