

2.200 Declaration of day of mourning.

The Governor is authorized to declare a day of mourning in the Commonwealth of Kentucky on suitable and appropriate occasions. Such declaration of a day of mourning shall in no way affect the operation of banks and trust companies, public schools, public offices, state agencies or any other segment of public or private endeavor in the state.

Effective: June 21, 1974

History: Created 1974 Ky. Acts ch. 198, sec. 1, effective June 21, 1974.