

257.070 Animals to be imported according to regulations.

- (1) The movement of domestic animals from other states into this state shall be made only in compliance with regulations of the board.
- (2) Any animal brought into this state in violation of any regulation of the board shall:
 - (a) Be placed in quarantine until the necessary inspection or test has been completed by a representative or agent of the board. All expenses incident to the quarantine, including the inspection and testing, shall be borne by the owner; or
 - (b) Be removed from the state at the direction of the state veterinarian.

Effective: June 25, 2009

History: Amended 2009 Ky. Acts ch. 22, sec. 7, effective June 25, 2009. -- Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. sec. 63c-6.