

286.3-530 Examination of institutions in hands of receiver -- Reports of receivers.

The department shall examine banks and trust companies in the hands of a receiver, as other banks and trust companies, until its affairs are wound up, and a copy of the examination shall be filed with the circuit clerk in the county where the bank is located. The receiver or person in charge of the insolvent bank or trust company shall make reports to the department, and shall submit the affairs of the institution under his control to examination in the same manner as required in the case of other banks and trust companies.
