

322.470 Right of entry on land of others by land surveyor -- Notification of landowner -- Liability of landowner.

As used in this section, "professional land surveyor" shall include the agents, the employees, and any personnel under the supervision of a professional land surveyor.

- (1) A professional land surveyor may go on, over, and upon the lands of others if necessary to perform surveys for the location of property corners, boundary lines, rights-of-way, and easements, and may carry with them their customary equipment and vehicles.
 - (a) Entry under the right hereby granted shall not constitute trespass; and
 - (b) A professional land surveyor shall not be liable to arrest or a civil action by reason of this entry.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as giving authority to a professional land surveyor to destroy, injure, damage, or move anything on the lands of another without the written permission of the landowner; and nothing in this section shall be construed as removing civil liability for these damages.
- (3) A professional land surveyor shall make reasonable effort to notify adjoining landowners upon whose land it is necessary to enter.
- (4) No owner or occupant of the land shall be liable for any injury or damage sustained by any person entering upon his or her land under the provisions of this section.
