

324A.050 Grounds for refusal to reissue or renew certificate or license or for other disciplinary action -- Petition for reinstatement.

- (1) The board may refuse to issue, refuse to renew, suspend, or revoke a certificate or license, reprimand, admonish, place on probation, or impose a fine up to two thousand dollars ($2000) on a certificate holder or licensee, or any combination thereof, for any of the following reasons:
 - (a) Procuring or attempting to procure a certificate or license by knowingly making a false statement or submitting false information, or through any form of fraud or misrepresentation;
 - (b) Refusing to provide complete information in response to a question in an application to the board or failing to meet the minimum qualifications established by the board;
 - (c) Being convicted of any felony, or of a misdemeanor that may result in a sentence which includes or requires incarceration;
 - (d) Committing an act involving dishonesty, fraud, or misrepresentation;
 - (e) Violating any of the provisions of KRS 324A.010 to 324A.090, the administrative regulations of the board, or any lawful order of the board;
 - (f) Violating the confidential nature of records to which the appraiser gained access through employment or engagement as an appraiser;
 - (g) Committing any other conduct which constitutes or demonstrates bad faith, untrustworthiness, impropriety, fraud, or dishonesty;
 - (h) Failing or refusing, without good cause, to exercise reasonable diligence in developing an appraisal, preparing an appraisal report, or communicating an appraisal;
 - (i) Being negligent or incompetent in developing an appraisal, in preparing an appraisal report, or in communicating an appraisal; or
 - (j) Failing to observe one (1) or more of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice.
- (2) Three (3) years from the date of a revocation, any certificate holder or licensee whose certificate or license has been revoked may petition the board for reinstatement. The board shall investigate the petition and may reinstate, upon a finding that the petitioner has complied with any terms prescribed by the board and is able to engage in the practice of real estate appraisal within the requirements of this chapter and the administrative regulations. The board may, in its discretion, require the petitioner to successfully pass the examination required for the applicable certificate or license.
