

422.325 Proper procedure for obtaining records required.

No institution or person shall be held in contempt or otherwise penalized for failure of production unless the business records of the institution indicate that the costs provided herein have been established and tendered. No sanction or remedy for contempt shall be applied against any such person or institution unless a subpoena or order expressly commanding the person's presence has been issued by authority of the court or other body.

Effective: June 17, 1978

History: Created 1978 Ky. Acts ch. 109, sec. 6, effective June 17, 1978.