

425.006 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

- (1) The term "judicial officer" means any judge or any commissioner or other officer appointed by the trial court to perform the duties required by this chapter.
- (2) The term "probable validity of the claim" means a claim in which it is more likely than not that the plaintiff will obtain a judgment against the defendant on that claim.
- (3) The term "dwelling" as used in this chapter means a mobile home, boat or similar property used as a place of residence.

History: Created 1976 Ky. Acts ch. 91, sec. 1.