

446.017 Conditions under which portion of bill may be void.

When a bill enrolled, either approved by the Governor or which became law without the Governor's signature under the provisions of Constitution Section 88, and which has been filed with the Secretary of State, contains language which is not identical to that contained in the bill passed by the legislature, and when the variance is material, that language not conforming to the bill as passed shall be severed and shall be void.

Effective: July 15, 1980

History: Created 1980 Ky. Acts ch. 311, sec. 1, effective July 15, 1980.