

64.850 Commingling of public and private funds prohibited.

It shall be unlawful for any county official to deposit public funds with individual or private funds in any bank or other depository or for any such official to withdraw public funds for any purpose other than that for which they were received and deposited.

History: Created 1974 Ky. Acts ch. 254, sec. 15.