

194.250 Protection of records, files, and information.

All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or other writing in the possession of the Department of Child Welfare, the Department of Economic Security, the Department of Health, the Department of Mental Health, the Commission on Aging, the Commission on Children and Youth, the Commission for Handicapped Children, the Office of Economic Opportunity, the Division of Disability Determination of the Department of Education, and the Employment Agency Licensure Program of the Department of Labor and in the possession of all instrumentalities within or attached thereto shall remain in the custody of the cabinet. All confidential records, files, or information maintained in accordance with state or federal law or regulations or rules of court shall be retained in accordance with present law, regulations, or rules of court until modified or repealed or until the secretary establishes appropriate regulations to protect these records, files, and information.

Effective: July 15, 1980

History: Amended 1980 Ky. Acts ch. 118, sec. 11, effective July 15, 1980. --
Created 1974 Ky. Acts ch. 74, Art. VI, sec. 26.