

532.135 Determination by court that defendant has a serious intellectual disability.

- (1) At least thirty (30) days before trial, the defendant shall file a motion with the trial court wherein the defendant may allege that he is a defendant with a serious intellectual disability and present evidence with regard thereto. The Commonwealth may offer evidence in rebuttal.
- (2) At least ten (10) days before the beginning of the trial, the court shall determine whether or not the defendant is a defendant with a serious intellectual disability in accordance with the definition in KRS 532.130.
- (3) The decision of the court shall be placed in the record.
- (4) The pretrial determination of the trial court shall not preclude the defendant from raising any legal defense during the trial. If it is determined the defendant is an offender with a serious intellectual disability, he shall be sentenced as provided in KRS 532.140.
