

69.120 Counties having a population of more than 150,000 to pay expenses of Commonwealth's attorney.

The necessary expenses of the Commonwealth's attorney in the discharge of his official duties in counties containing a population of more than 150,000 shall be paid out of the county levy. The fiscal court shall order payment of the expenses upon presentation of a bill by the Commonwealth's attorney.

Effective: October 1, 1942

History: Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. sec. 125b-5.