

3.020 Jurisdiction retained for execution of process.

Kentucky retains jurisdiction for the execution of process, issued under its authority, over all lands in Kentucky heretofore or hereafter ceded to or acquired by the United States for the erection or establishment of post offices, custom houses, courthouses, locks, dams, canals, parks, cemeteries, or forest reserves.

Effective: October 1, 1942

History: Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. secs. 2376a-1, 2376b-1, 2376c-1, 2376e-2, 2739f-2, 2739f-8, 3766e-17, 3766e-30.