

333.190 Denial, revocation, or suspension of laboratory license.

A medical laboratory license may be denied, revoked, suspended, limited, annulled, or renewal thereof denied for any of the following reasons:

- (1) Making false statements on an application for medical laboratory license or any other documents required by the cabinet.
- (2) Permitting unauthorized persons to perform technical procedures or to issue or sign reports.
- (3) Demonstrating incompetence or making frequent errors in the performance or reporting of medical laboratory examinations and procedures.
- (4) Performing a test and rendering a report thereon to a person not authorized by law to receive such services.
- (5) Reporting the results determined on a specimen by a medical laboratory which has not been licensed or exempted under this chapter.
- (6) Rendering a report on medical laboratory work actually performed in another medical laboratory without designating the name of the director and the name and address of the medical laboratory in which the test was performed.
- (7) Knowingly having professional connection with or knowingly lending the use of the name of the licensed medical laboratory or its director to an unlicensed medical laboratory.
- (8) Violating or aiding and abetting in the violation of any provision of this chapter or the rules or regulations promulgated hereunder.
- (9) Failing to submit to the cabinet any report required by the provisions of this chapter or the reasonable rules and regulations promulgated hereunder.
- (10) Failure of medical laboratory personnel, trainees, assistants or other individuals employed by a medical laboratory, to complete the course specified in KRS 214.610(1) at least one (1) time every ten (10) years, unless the cabinet requires, by promulgation of an administrative regulation in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A, completion of the course more frequently.
