

7.134 Contents of certified versions of KRS -- Format -- Requirements for certificate.

- (1) Certified versions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes shall contain:
  - (a) The Constitution of the United States;
  - (b) The Constitution of this Commonwealth;
  - (c) The text of all laws contained in the official version of the Kentucky Revised Statutes;
  - (d) A full and accurate index of the statute laws and Constitution of this Commonwealth;
  - (e) The rules of the Supreme Court of Kentucky, the Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure, the Kentucky Rules of Criminal Procedure, and any other judicial materials specified by the Commission; and
  - (f) Any annotations, historical notes, and other information that the Commission deems appropriate to include.
- (2) A certified version of the Kentucky Revised Statutes may be in a printed or electronic format and shall be updated in a manner and frequency acceptable to the Commission to provide prompt notice to its users of the texts of newly-created and newly-amended statutes, the repeals of existing statutes, and any technical corrections, renumberings, or notes issued by the Commission. If a publisher produces more than one (1) version of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, a separate certification may be required for each version.
- (3) Each new complete certified version of the Kentucky Revised Statutes and each new volume, unit, supplement, supplemental pocket part, or electronic release of a certified version shall include a certificate issued by the director of the Legislative Research Commission and attested to by the reviser of statutes that the particular material being certified has been prepared in a manner acceptable to the Legislative Research Commission so as to ensure the identity of its text with the official version of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.
