

154.10-080 Regional offices and advisory boards.

- (1) The board may establish one or more regional offices and provide staff as necessary to perform functions as prescribed by the board.
- (2) The board may establish regional advisory boards consisting of representatives of government, private business, communities, and higher education; and prescribe their functions and responsibilities.
- (3) The board may contract with existing economic development agencies as necessary to perform functions as prescribed by the board.

Effective: July 14, 1992

History: Created 1992 Ky. Acts ch. 105, sec. 15, effective July 14, 1992.