

199.400 Security for care and custody of nonresident child accepted for boarding or lodging in this state.

Whenever the county judge/executive of any county, in his discretion, deems it necessary that a person accepting a nonresident child for boarding or lodging in this Commonwealth shall satisfy him that such a nonresident child shall never become a charge upon the Commonwealth or any subdivision thereof, he may require that the proper public authorities of the state or county in which the nonresident child resides, furnish security, to his satisfaction, that they will assume the care and custody of such child in the event such child becomes a charge upon this Commonwealth or any subdivision thereof. Whenever any county judge/executive shall enter an order that such security shall be furnished for all nonresident children boarded or lodged in his county, no child shall thereafter be accepted for boarding or lodging in said county until such security is furnished. Any person who accepts a nonresident child under the age of sixteen (16) years for boarding or lodging, in any county, without the furnishing of the security provided for herein, after the county judge/executive of the county has provided by order for the furnishing of such security, shall be guilty of an offense and punished as provided in subsection (3) of KRS 199.990.

History: Amended 1970 Ky. Acts ch. 92, sec. 64. -- Created 1946 Ky. Acts ch. 13, sec. 3.

Note: This section was amended by 1980 Ky. Acts ch. 280, sec. 143, which was to have become effective July 1, 1982. Thereafter, 1982 Ky. Acts ch. 284 changed the effective date of that act to July 15, 1984. Then, 1984 Ky. Acts ch. 184 repealed both 1980 Ky. Acts ch. 280, and 1982 Ky. Acts ch. 284.
