

386.580 Advertising and publicity prohibitions -- Exceptions.

Except as may be specifically authorized by rule or regulation of the appropriate supervisory agency, no trust institution or foreign trust institution holding stock in a fiduciary investment company may advertise or publicize its participation in such fiduciary investment company; provided that any trust institution or foreign trust institution holding stock in a fiduciary investment company shall furnish the annual or periodic financial reports of such fiduciary investment company, on request, to any person having a beneficial interest therein, and the fact of the availability of such material may be given publicity in connection with the promotion of the fiduciary services of such trust institution or foreign trust institution.

History: Created 1974 Ky. Acts ch. 300, sec. 9.