

263.160 Operations exempt from law.

This chapter does not apply to: (1) the premises of the rendering operations on the premises of an establishment operating under United States government inspection; (2) a slaughter house or meat processing plant holding a permit or license from the State Health Department that conducts rendering operations on raw rendering materials resulting only from slaughter house and meat processing establishments; (3) a farmer who slaughters his own animals, raised by him on his own farm, processes his own meat therefrom, and who disposes of his raw rendering material only by delivery to a person licensed under this chapter; (4) cured hides and skins.

History: Created 1966 Ky. Acts ch. 47, sec. 17.