

158.194 Bill of Rights to be displayed.

Each public elementary and secondary school classroom in the Commonwealth of Kentucky shall prominently display a copy of the Bill of Rights, embodying the individual liberties safeguarded by the Constitution of the United States.

Effective: July 15, 1988

History: Codified September 30, 1999. -- Created 1988 Ky. Acts ch. 172, sec. 1, effective July 15, 1988.

Legislative Research Commission Note (9/30/99). -- This statute was created by a joint resolution of the 1988 Regular Session of the General Assembly and was previously carried as an LRC Note under KRS 158.010. Because the enactment is permanent in nature, see KRS 7.131(2), the Reviser of Statutes has codified this text as KRS 158.194 under KRS 7.136(1)(a).