

280.120 Warning signs and lights on roads approaching ferry.

Each ferry company shall at all times during daylight maintain warning signs of adequate size at distances of five hundred (500) feet and one hundred (100) feet from each bank of the river, and during all hours other than daylight shall maintain red warning lights at the same distances from each bank.

Effective: October 1, 1942

History: Recodified 1942 Ky. Acts ch. 208, sec. 1, effective October 1, 1942, from Ky. Stat. sec. 4356za-20.