

338.081 Hearing officer -- Employment -- Powers.

- (1) Hearings authorized by the provisions of this chapter may be conducted by a hearing officer appointed by the review commission to serve in its place. Said hearing officer may be a full-time employee, serve by contract, or be paid on a per diem basis at the discretion of the review commission.
- (2) In the conduct of these hearings, the review commission or hearing officer may subpoena and examine witnesses, require the production of evidence, administer oaths, and take testimony and depositions.
- (3) After hearing an appeal, the review commission may sustain, modify or dismiss a citation or penalty.

History: Created 1972 Ky. Acts ch. 251, sec. 9.