

49.350 Failure to perfect claim -- Denial and bar to reassertion of claim.

Following the initial filing of a claim, if a claimant or victim does not take such further steps as may be necessary to support or perfect the claim as may be required by the commission within thirty (30) days after such requirement is made by the commission, the claimant or victim shall be deemed in default. In such case the commission shall summarily deny the claim and the claimant or victim shall be forever barred from reasserting the claim. The commission may remit such proceedings on good cause shown that the failure to take the steps required by the commission was totally and completely beyond the control of the claimant or victim.
