

236.260 Access to premises.

The commissioner, the chief boiler inspector, any boiler inspector, or any special boiler inspector shall have free access, during reasonable hours, to any premises in the state where a boiler or pressure vessel is being constructed, operated, installed, or repaired for the purpose of ascertaining whether the work being performed is in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 236 or any orders or regulations made thereunder.

Effective: July 12, 2012

History: Amended 2012 Ky. Acts ch. 14, sec. 18, effective July 12, 2012. -- Amended 2010 Ky. Acts ch. 24, sec. 531, effective July 15, 2010. -- Amended 1980 Ky. Acts ch. 207, sec. 20, effective July 15, 1980. -- Created 1974 Ky. Acts ch. 209, sec. 7.