

367.950 Audit by special auditor hired by Attorney General -- Cost of audit to be taxed as court costs.

If the Attorney General determines any discrepancy as a result of his examination, the Attorney General's office may hire a special independent auditor of choice to do a complete audit of books, both as to contracts entered into prior to and after July 13, 1984, to determine compliance with the cemetery laws; in any action brought under this chapter in which the Commonwealth prevails, the court shall award costs incurred by the Attorney General for the special independent auditor.

Effective: July 13, 1984

History: Created 1984 Ky. Acts ch. 116, sec. 12, effective July 13, 1984.