

198B.667 Interim period for use of recently deceased owner's or employee's master heating, ventilation, and air conditioning contractor's license.

- (1) The department shall grant an interim period of up to one hundred eighty (180) continuous calendar days to allow a company to utilize the master heating, ventilation, and air conditioning contractor's license of a recently deceased owner or deceased employee who procured heating, ventilation, and air conditioning permits for that company, provided that the company:
 - (a) Effectuates and documents all necessary bonding and insurance policies required in this chapter; and
 - (b) Ensures that the bonding and insurance policies remain in effect for the entirety of the interim time period extended by the department.
- (2) The license of a deceased master heating, ventilation, and air conditioning contractor shall be terminated by the department at the end of the interim period.
- (3) Upon termination of the deceased master heating, ventilation, and air conditioning contractor's license, a company shall have an employee with a current and valid Kentucky master heating, ventilation, and air conditioning contractor's license in order to procure permits and perform heating, ventilation, and air conditioning work governed by KRS 198B.650 to 198B.689.

Effective: July 14, 2018

History: Created 2018 Ky. Acts ch. 22, sec. 4, effective July 14, 2018.