If any issue of bonds constitutes an indebtedness within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation or restriction, each bond of the issue is, subject to the requirements of subsection 8, an equally valid and binding special obligation of the commerce authority or participating political subdivision, as the case may be, in accordance with its terms, in an amount proportionate to the total amount of the issue which is within the limitation or restriction. A commissioner of a commerce authority or an individual executing the bonds is not liable personally on the bonds by reason of the issuance of the bonds, except to the extent that the bonds, if constituting an indebtedness, exceed any applicable limitation or restriction.
3. If any commissioner or officer of a commerce authority whose signature appears on any bonds or coupons ceases to be a commissioner or officer after authorization but before the delivery of the bonds, the signature, is valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if the commissioner or officer had remained in office until delivery.

6. For the security of the bonds, the commerce authority by resolution may make any covenant, agreement, or indenture authorized to be made as security for revenue bonds issued under chapter 40-35. The sums required to pay principal and interest and to create and maintain a reserve for the bonds may be payable from any revenues referred to in this chapter, before the payment of current costs of operation and maintenance of the facilities.
7. When bonds are issued under this section and made payable from revenues of a commerce authority involving political subdivisions with a population over ten thousand, subject to the requirements of subsection 8, the governing bodies of the political subdivisions, if at any time all revenues, including taxes, appropriated and to that time collected for the bonds are insufficient to pay the principal or interest then due, shall levy a general tax upon all of the taxable property in the political subdivisions for the payment of the deficiency. If a deficiency is likely to occur within one year for the payment of principal and interest due on the bonds, the governing bodies, in their declaration, may levy a general tax upon all the taxable property in the political subdivisions for the payment of the deficiency. The taxes are not subject to any limitation of rate or amount applicable to other political subdivisions taxes.

8. For bonds issued under this section to be an obligation of a political subdivision or commerce authority, the issuance of the bonds must be approved by a majority vote of the governing body of each political subdivision involved or, within thirty days after the commerce authority decides to issue the bonds, the political subdivision or commerce authority must put the question, specifying the amount of the bond at issue, to the electors at any primary, general, or special election. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the issue vote in favor of issuing the bonds, the commerce authority or political subdivision, to the amount authorized in the election, may pledge the general obligation of the commerce authority or political subdivision to guarantee the repayment of the principal and interest on the bonds.

11-37-10. Sales and use tax incentives.

The elected governing body of a participating political subdivision may offer sales and use tax exemptions from sales and use taxes the participating political subdivision has imposed for tangible personal property purchased and made a part of the commerce authority's infrastructure if the tangible personal property is placed within the geographic boundaries of the political subdivision and is necessary and directly services infrastructure needs of the commerce authority.

11-37-11. Commerce authority property and income exempt from taxation.

Any property in this state acquired by a commerce authority for the purposes of the commerce authority, and any income derived by the commerce authority from the ownership, operation, or control of the property, is exempt from taxation to the same extent as other property used for public purposes.

11-37-12. Out-of-state jurisdiction authorized - Reciprocity with adjoining governmental agencies.

A political subdivision creating a commerce authority may exercise those powers within any political subdivision or jurisdiction adjoining this state, subject to the laws of that political subdivision.

11-37-13. Tax levy by political subdivision.

The commerce authority may certify annually to the governing bodies the amount of tax requested to be levied by each political subdivision participating in the commerce authority. The governing body of each political subdivision shall consider the levy request of the commerce authority and determine the amount to be levied. The levy may not exceed the maximum levy permitted for commerce authority purposes. Each political subdivision shall collect the taxes levied on behalf of a commerce authority in the same manner as other taxes are levied and collected. The proceeds of the taxes must be deposited in a special account or accounts in which other revenues of the commerce authority are deposited and may be expended by the commerce authority as provided in this chapter.
