12.1-27.2-05. Sexual performance by a minor - Affirmative defenses.

It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution under this chapter that:

1. The defendant in good faith reasonably believed the person appearing in the performance was eighteen years of age or older;
2. The material or performance involved was disseminated or presented for a bona fide medical, scientific, educational, religious, governmental, judicial, or other appropriate purpose by or to a physician, psychologist, sociologist, scientist, teacher, person pursuing bona fide studies or research, librarian, member of the clergy, prosecutor, judge, or other person having a similar interest in the material or performance; or
3. 12.1-27.2-06. Proof of age of minor.

When it becomes necessary under this chapter to determine whether a minor participated in a sexual performance, the trier of fact may base its determination on personal inspection of the minor, inspection of a photograph or motion picture of the sexual performance, testimony by a witness to the sexual performance as to the age of the minor based upon the minor's appearance, expert testimony based upon the appearance of the minor in the sexual performance, or any other method authorized by law or by rule.
