A public offering statement is not current unless all amendments are incorporated.

43-23.1-08. Inquiry and examination.

Upon receipt of an application for registration in proper form, the commission shall forthwith initiate an examination to determine that:

1. The subdivider can convey or cause to be conveyed the interest in subdivided lands offered for disposition if the purchaser complies with the terms of the offer, and, when appropriate, that release clauses, conveyances in trust, escrow and impoundage provisions, and other safeguards have been provided;

If no order of rejection is entered within ninety days from the date of notice of filing, the land must be deemed registered unless the applicant has consented in writing to a delay.

If the commission determines, upon inquiry and examination, that any of the requirements of section 43-23.1-08 has not been met, the commission shall notify the applicant that the application for registration must be corrected in the particulars specified within ten days. If the requirements are not met within the time allowed, the commission shall enter an order rejecting the registration which must include the findings of fact upon which the order is based. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction or restraining order must be granted without bond.

43-23.1-18. Civil remedy.

1. Every disposition made in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or of any order issued by the commission under any of the provisions of this chapter, is voidable at the election of the purchaser. 2. If any person, including any nonresident of this state, engages in conduct prohibited by this chapter or any rule or regulation or order hereunder, and has not filed a consent to service of process and personal jurisdiction over that person cannot otherwise be obtained in this state, that conduct authorizes the commission to receive service of process in any noncriminal proceeding against that person or that person's successor which grows out of that conduct and which is brought under this chapter or any rule or regulation or order hereunder, with the same force and validity as if served on that person personally. Notice must be given as provided in subsection 1.

43-23.1-22. Evidentiary matters.

1. In any action, civil or criminal, when a defense is based upon any exemption provided for in this chapter, the burden of proving the existence of such exemption is upon the party raising such defense.
