47-19-41. Effect of not recording - Priority of first record - Constructive notice - Limitation and validation.

Every conveyance of real estate not recorded shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser in good faith, and for a valuable consideration, of the same real estate, or any part or portion thereof, whose conveyance, whether in the form of a warranty deed, or deed of bargain and sale, or deed of quitclaim and release, of the form in common use or otherwise, first is deposited with the proper officer for record and subsequently recorded, whether entitled to record or not, or as against an attachment levied thereon or any judgment lawfully obtained, at the suit of any party, against the person in whose name the title to such land appears of record, prior to the recording of such conveyance. The fact that such first deposited and recorded conveyance of such subsequent purchaser for a valuable consideration is in the form, or contains the terms, of a deed of quitclaim and release aforesaid, shall not affect the question of good faith of the subsequent purchaser, or be of itself notice to the subsequent purchaser of any unrecorded conveyance of the same real estate or any part thereof. This section shall be legal notice to all who claim under unrecorded instruments that prior recording of later instruments not entitled to be recorded may nullify their right, title, interest, or lien, to, in, or upon affected real property. No action affecting any right, title, interest, or lien, to, in, or upon real property shall be commenced or maintained or defense or counterclaim asserted or recognized in court on the ground that a recorded instrument was not entitled to be recorded. A conveyance is not void or voidable solely because the grantee in the conveyance is a trust, rather than the trustee of the trust, or is an estate, rather than the personal representative of the estate, if the identity of the grantee is reasonably ascertainable from the conveyance or from other information of public record, or from both.

47-19-43. Purchaser defined.

The word "purchaser" as used in section 47-19-41 shall include every person to whom any estate or interest in real estate is conveyed for a valuable consideration, and also every assignee of a mortgage, lease, or other conditional estate.

47-19-45. Record - Constructive notice of execution - Instruments recorded admissible in evidence without further proof.

The depositing with the proper officer for record of any instrument shall be constructive notice of the execution of such instrument to all purchasers and encumbrancers subsequent to such depositing, if such instrument is subsequently recorded. All instruments entitled to record, the record of all instruments, or a duly certified copy of such record, shall be admissible in evidence in all the courts of this state and may be read in evidence in all of the courts of this state without further proof.

47-19-46. Unrecorded instrument valid between parties - Knowledge of instruments out of chain of title.

An unrecorded instrument is valid as between the parties thereto and those who have notice thereof. Knowledge of the record of an instrument out of the chain of title does not constitute such notice, provided, however, that the record of a mortgage, deed, or other conveyance prior to the recording of a deed or other conveyance vesting title of record in the mortgagor or grantor shall not be considered out of the chain of title after the recording of a deed or other conveyance vesting title in the mortgagor or grantor in such first recorded mortgage, deed, or other conveyance.

Any owner of a farm in the state may have the name of the person's farm, together with a description of the person's land to which said name applies, recorded in a register kept for that purpose in the office of the recorder of the county in which said farm is located. The recorder shall furnish to such landowner a certificate setting forth the name and the description of said land. When any name shall have been recorded as the name of any farm in such county, the name shall not be recorded as the name of any other farm in the same county.

47-19-48. Transfer of farm may include registered name.

When any owner of a farm, the name of which has been recorded as provided in section 47-19-47, the owner's heirs, executors, or administrators, transfers by deed or otherwise, the whole of such farm, such transfer may include the registered name thereof. If it is desired to transfer only a portion of such farm, the registered name thereof shall not be transferred to the purchaser unless so stated in the deed of conveyance.

Whenever any owner of a registered farm, or the owner's heirs, executors, or administrators, desires to cancel the registered name thereof, it shall be accomplished in the same manner as is provided for cancellation of real estate mortgages.

2. The execution of the instrument is acknowledged before some official qualified to take acknowledgments.

47-19-51. Filing of bill of sale or other instrument - Notice.

The filing of a bill of sale or other instrument which transfers the title to personal property shall operate as notice thereof to all subsequent purchasers and encumbrancers of so much of said property as is situated, at the time of such filing, in the county wherein such instrument is filed.

47-19-52. Bill of sale - Release - Cancellation by recorder.

The recorder shall cancel and discharge, upon the records in the recorder's office, any bill of sale, upon the filing of a release executed by both parties to the instrument.

47-19-54. Sale of real property by contract for deed - Effect on joint tenants.

47-19-55. Authority of North Dakota notaries in other states.

A North Dakota notary may perform a notarial act in another state if that state recognizes the notary's authority within that state.

47-19-56. Corporate change noted in assignment, satisfaction, or release.

When a change in the name or identity of a corporate mortgagee or assignee of the mortgagee is caused by or results from a merger, consolidation, amendment to charter or articles of incorporation, or conversion of articles of incorporation or charter from federal to state, from state to federal, or from one form of entity to another, a mortgage assignment, satisfaction, or release that is otherwise recordable and that specifies in the body of the instrument the merger, consolidation, amendment, or conversion event causing the change in name or identity is in recordable form. The assignment, satisfaction, or release is entitled to be recorded in the office of the county recorder without further evidence of corporate merger, consolidation, amendment, or conversion. For purposes of assigning, satisfying, or releasing the mortgage, the assignment, satisfaction, or release is prima facie evidence of the facts stated in it with respect to the corporate merger, consolidation, amendment, or conversion, and the county recorder shall rely upon it to assign, satisfy, or release the mortgage.

47-19-57. Authority of mortgagee designated as nominee or agent - Retroactive application.

1. An assignment, satisfaction, or release is entitled to be recorded in the office of the county recorder and is sufficient to assign, satisfy, or release a mortgage if:
