15. "Structured settlement payment rights" means rights to receive periodic payments under a structured settlement, whether from the structured settlement obligor or the annuity issuer, if at least one of the following applies:

- a. The payee is domiciled in, or the domicile or principal place of business of the structured settlement obligor or the annuity issuer is located in, this state;

The term does not include the creation or perfection of a security interest in structured settlement payment rights under a blanket security agreement entered with an insured depository institution, in the absence of any action to redirect the structured settlement payments to the insured depository institution, or an agent or successor in interest thereof, or otherwise to enforce the blanket security interest against the structured settlement payment rights.

 - 20. "Transferee" means a party acquiring or proposing to acquire structured settlement payment rights through a transfer.

32-03.4-02. Required disclosures to payee.

At least three days before the date on which a payee signs a transfer agreement, the transferee shall provide to the payee a separate disclosure statement, in bold and in at least fourteen-point type, setting forth:

- 1. The amounts and due dates of the structured settlement payments to be transferred;
- 2. The aggregate amount of the payments;
- 3. The discounted present value of the payments to be transferred, which must be identified as the "calculation of current value of the transferred structured settlement payments under federal standards for 'valuing annuities'", and the amount of the applicable federal rate used in calculating the discounted present value;
- 4. The gross advance amount;
- 5. An itemized list of all applicable transfer expenses, other than attorney's fees and related disbursements, payable in connection with the transferee's application for approval of the transfer and the transferee's best estimate of the amount of any such fees and disbursements;
- 6. The net advance amount;
- 7. The amount of any penalties or liquidated damages payable by the payee in the event of any breach of the transfer agreement by the payee; and
- 8. A statement that the payee has the right to cancel the transfer agreement, without penalty or further obligation, no later than the third business day after the date the agreement is signed by the payee.

32-03.4-03. Approval of transfers of structured settlement payment rights.

A direct or indirect transfer of structured settlement payment rights is not effective and a structured settlement obligor or annuity issuer may not be required to make any payment directly or indirectly to any transferee of structured settlement payment rights unless the transfer has been approved in advance in a final court order based on the following express findings by the court:

1. The transfer is in the best interest of the payee, taking into account the welfare and support of the payee's dependents and whether the transaction, including the discount rate used to determine the gross advance amount and the fees and expenses used to determine the net advance amount, are fair and reasonable. If the court makes the findings as outlined in this subsection, there is not a requirement for the court to find that an applicant is suffering from a hardship to approve the transfer of structured settlement payments under this subsection;
2. The payee has been advised in writing by the transferee to seek independent professional advice regarding the transfer and has either received that advice or knowingly waived the advice in writing; and
3. The transfer does not contravene any applicable statute or the order of any court or other governmental authority.

32-03.4-04. Effects of transfer of structured settlement payment rights.

Following a transfer of structured settlement payment rights under this chapter:

1. The structured settlement obligor and the annuity issuer are discharged and released from all liability for the transferred payments as to all parties except the transferee;
2. The transferee is liable to the structured settlement obligor and the annuity issuer:
 - a. If the transfer contravenes the terms of the structured settlement, for any taxes incurred by those parties as a consequence of the transfer; and
 - b. For any other liabilities or costs, including reasonable costs and attorney's fees, arising from compliance by those parties with the order of the court or arising as a consequence of the transferee's failure to comply with this chapter;
3. Neither the annuity issuer nor the structured settlement obligor may be required to divide any periodic payment between the payee and any transferee or assignee or between two or more transferees or assignees; and
4. Any further transfer of structured settlement payment rights by the payee may be made only after compliance with all of the requirements of this chapter.

32-03.4-05. Procedure for approval of transfers.

1. An application for approval of a transfer of structured settlement payment rights under this chapter must be made by the transferee and may be brought in the county in which the payee resides, in the county in which the structured settlement obligor or the annuity issuer maintains its principal place of business, or in any court that approved the structured settlement agreement.
2. At least twenty days before the scheduled hearing on any application for approval of a transfer of structured settlement payment rights under section 32-03.4-03, the transferee shall file with the court and serve on all interested parties a notice of the proposed transfer and the application for its authorization. The notice must include:
 - a. A copy of the transferee's application;
 - b. A copy of the transfer agreement;
 - c. A copy of the disclosure statement required under section 32-03.4-02;
 - d. A list of each of the payee's dependents and each dependent's age;
 - e. Notification that any interested party is entitled to support, oppose, or otherwise respond to the transferee's application, either in person or by counsel, by submitting written comments to the court or by participating in the hearing;
 - f. Notification of the time and place of the hearing; and
 - g. Notification of the manner in which and the time by which written responses to the application must be filed in order to be considered by the court, which may be not less than fifteen days after service of the transferee's notice.

32-03.4-06. No waiver by payee.

The requirements of this chapter may not be waived by any payee.

32-03.4-07. Disputes decided under state law.

Any transfer agreement entered on or after the effective date of this chapter by a payee who resides in this state must provide that disputes under the transfer agreement, including any claim that the payee has breached the agreement, must be determined in and under the laws of this state. Such a transfer agreement may not authorize the transferee or any other party to confess judgment or consent to entry of judgment against the payee.

32-03.4-08. Life-contingent payments not to be transferred - Exception.

A transfer of structured settlement payment rights may not extend to any payments that are life-contingent unless, before the date on which the payee signs the transfer agreement, the transferee has established and has agreed to maintain procedures reasonably satisfactory to the annuity issuer and the structured settlement obligor for periodically confirming the payee's survival and giving the annuity issuer and the structured settlement obligor prompt written notice in the event of the payee's death.

32-03.4-09. No payee liability for failure to comply with chapter.

A payee who proposes to make a transfer of structured settlement payment rights may not incur any penalty, forfeit any application fee or other payment, or otherwise incur any liability to the proposed transferee or any assignee based on any failure of the transfer to satisfy the conditions of this chapter.

32-03.4-10. Effect of chapter on existing laws and transfer agreements.

This chapter does not authorize any transfer of structured settlement payment rights in contravention of any law nor does this chapter imply that any transfer under a transfer agreement entered before August 1, 2009, is valid or invalid.

32-03.4-11. Transferee solely responsible for certain requirements.

In any transfer of structured settlement payment rights, compliance with the requirements of section 32-03.4-02 and fulfillment of the conditions of section 32-03.4-03 are the sole responsibility of the transferee. Neither the structured settlement obligor nor the annuity issuer bears any responsibility for, or any liability arising from, noncompliance with those requirements or failure to fulfill those conditions.

32-03.4-12. Penalty.

Any transferee that willfully violates this chapter is guilty of an infraction. A second or subsequent violation of this chapter is a class B misdemeanor.

32-03.4-13. Applicability of chapter.

This chapter applies to any transfer of structured settlement payment rights under a transfer agreement entered after July 31, 2009. This chapter does not imply that any transfer under a transfer agreement reached before August 1, 2009, is either effective or ineffective.
