

CHAPTER 35-20 MISCELLANEOUS LIENS

35-20-01. Vendor's lien on real property for purchase price authorized.

One who sells real property has a special or vendor's lien thereon, independent of possession, for so much of the price as remains unpaid and unsecured otherwise than by the personal obligation of the buyer.

35-20-02. Vendor's lien waived by transfer of written contract for payment - Exception.

When a buyer of real property gives to the seller a written contract for payment of all or part of the price, an absolute transfer of the contract by the seller waives the seller's lien to the extent of the sum payable under the contract, but a transfer of the contract in trust to pay debts and return the surplus is not a waiver of the lien.

35-20-03. Purchaser's lien on real property for purchase price.

One who pays to the owner any part of the price of real property under an agreement for the sale thereof has a special lien upon the property, independent of possession, for such part of the amount paid as the person may be entitled to recover in case of a failure of consideration.

35-20-04. Vendor's and purchaser's liens on realty subject to rights of subsequent purchaser.

The liens defined in sections 35-20-01 and 35-20-03 are subject to the rights of subsequent creditors without notice and of purchasers or encumbrancers in good faith and for value.

35-20-05. Vendor's lien on personalty - Dependent on possession - Enforced as pledge.

One who sells personal property has a special lien thereon, dependent on possession, for its price, if it is in that person's possession when the price becomes payable, and may enforce that person's lien in like manner as if the property was pledged to that person for the price.

35-20-06. Factor's lien - Dependent on possession.

A factor has a general lien, dependent on possession, for all that is due to that person as a factor upon all articles of commercial value that are entrusted to that person by the same principal.

35-20-07. Officer's lien in attachment or execution.

An officer who levies an attachment or execution upon personal property acquires a special lien, dependent on possession, upon the property, which authorizes the officer to hold it until the process is discharged or satisfied or a judicial sale of the property is had.

35-20-08. Attorney's lien - On money - Against a judgment.

An attorney has a lien for a general balance of compensation in and for each case upon:

1. Money in the attorney's hands belonging to the attorney's client in the case.
2. Money due the attorney's client in the hands of the adverse party, or attorney of such party, in an action or proceeding in which the attorney claiming the lien was employed, from the time of giving notice in writing to the adverse party, or the attorney of such party if the money is in the possession or under the control of such attorney, which notice must state the amount claimed and in general terms for what services. After judgment in any court of record, the notice may be given and the lien made effective against the judgment debtor by entering the same in the judgment docket opposite the entry of the judgment.

35-20-09. Release of attorney's lien by undertaking.

Any interested person may release an attorney's lien by executing an undertaking in an amount double the amount claimed, or in such other amount as may be fixed by a judge of the district court of the county in which the lien is filed or in which the subject of the lien is held. The undertaking must be conditioned to pay to the attorney the amount finally due the attorney for the attorney's services, which amount may be ascertained by suit on the undertaking. The undertaking must be filed after approval by the clerk of court of the county. Any interested person may make written demand upon the holder of an attorney's lien for a bill of particulars of the services and amount claimed for each item or upon each written contract with the person for whom the services were rendered, and thereupon, unless such bill of particulars is furnished within ten days after service of the demand, the lien must be released.

Repealed by S.L. 1987, ch. 73, § 42.

35-20-11. Lien for repair, protection, improvement, safekeeping, or carriage of personalty.

In addition to other remedies available for the enforcement of liens, the holder of such special lien may foreclose the same and acquire ownership of such article of personal property, provided the holder of such a special lien has obtained the address of the owner at the time such article was left, by causing a notice of intention to foreclose such special lien to be sent to the owner thereof, by registered or certified mail, to the address obtained from such owner at the time such article is left, which notice shall be in substantially the following form:
