51-04-02.1. Application to attorney general for license.

Repealed by S.L. 1983, ch. 529, § 5.

51-04-03. License fee - Bond or cash surety - License issuance.

An applicant for a transient merchant's license shall pay to the attorney general a license fee of two hundred dollars to cover the cost of licensing and shall give a surety bond, or the deposit of cash in lieu thereof, which must be not less than one thousand dollars nor more than fifty thousand dollars, the surety on which must be a surety company authorized to transact business in the state of North Dakota. The contents and surety therein are subject to the approval of the attorney general and must be conditioned that the applicant will in all things conform to the laws relating to transient merchants and further conditioned upon full compliance with all material oral or written statements and representations made by the applicant, the applicant's agents, representatives, or auctioneers with reference to merchandise sold or offered for sale, and on faithful performance under all warranties made with reference thereto. The bond may not be revocable nor terminate prior to passage of two years' time after the expiration of the license issued pursuant thereto nor until due notice that the terms of the bond are to be canceled has been given to the attorney general.

No license is valid for more than one person unless that person is a bona fide member of a copartnership. Licenses issued by the attorney general are valid in all counties of the state and expire after one year from the dates of their issuance.

No sale under the purview of this chapter may be conducted in the name of any person other than the bona fide owner of the goods, wares, and merchandise.

The files and records of the attorney general pertaining to transient merchants must be kept in convenient form and open for public inspection.

51-04-03.1. License to be carried by licensee and exhibited on demand.

Every transient merchant licensed under this chapter shall have the license in immediate possession at all times when engaging in or transacting any business regulated by this chapter. The licensee shall display the license when requested to do so by any court, law enforcement official, peace officer, or consumer. However, a person charged with violating this requirement may not be convicted, fined, or assessed the administration fee if the license is produced in court or to the arresting officer and if the license was valid at the time of the arrest.

51-04-04. Affidavit required for certain sales.

It is unlawful for any transient merchant to advertise, represent, or hold forth as being sold for an insurance, bankrupt, insolvent, assignee, trustee, testator, executor, administrator, receiver, syndicate, wholesaler, or manufacturer, or closing out sale, or as a sale of any goods, wares, and merchandise damaged by smoke, fire, water, or otherwise, or in any similar form, unless such transient merchant shall file with the person's application for a transient merchant license an affidavit showing all the facts relating to the reasons and character of the sale so to be advertised or represented, and showing that the sale is in fact as it is to be advertised and represented, including a statement of:

1. The names of the persons from whom the goods, wares, and merchandise were obtained;
2. The date of their delivery to the applicant;
3. The place from which the goods, wares, and merchandise were last taken; and
4. All details necessary to exactly locate and fully itemize all goods, wares, and merchandise to be sold.

51-04-05. Failure of affidavit.

If the affidavit filed as prescribed in section 51-04-04 shows that the sale is not of the kind or character proposed to be advertised or represented or fails to disclose the facts as required, then the county auditor or the attorney general shall refuse the applicant a license for the sale. Should a license be issued to the applicant, it must state that the applicant is authorized and licensed to sell such goods, wares, and merchandise, and advertise and represent and hold forth the same as being sold as such insurance, bankrupt, insolvent, assignee, trustee, testator, executor, administrator, receiver, syndicate, wholesaler, or manufacturer, or closing out sale, or as a sale of any goods, wares, and merchandise damaged by smoke, fire, water, or otherwise, as shown in the affidavit.

The affidavit must be sworn to by the applicant before a person authorized to administer oaths.

51-04-06. Evidence.

When it appears that any stock of goods, wares, and merchandise has been brought into any county of this state by a person not a resident of the county, and that it is claimed, represented, or advertised that such stock is to be closed out at reduced prices, such facts are prima facie evidence that the person, copartnership, corporation, limited liability company, or agency so offering the goods, wares, and merchandise for sale is a transient merchant.

51-04-07. Service of process - Appointment of agent.

1. A transient merchant may not engage in any temporary business, or be licensed by any city, without first having complied with this section.

- applicant's agent to accept service of process in any action or proceeding involving the applicant and arising out of the sale for which the license is sought.
3. Each transient merchant required by the attorney general to do so shall appoint an agent in this state who is a resident of this state. The agent shall accept service of process on behalf of the transient merchant in any suit filed against the transient merchant and the agent is responsible for processing any warranty, claim, or merchandise sold by the transient merchant.
  4. The name and street address of the agent must be filed with the attorney general's office. In addition, the name and address of the agent must be furnished in writing to each person purchasing an item from the transient merchant along with a written statement that the agent is the proper person to accept service of process in any suit filed against the vendor and is the proper person to process any warranty claim.
