§ 2170a. Prohibition on purchase of United States defense contractors by entities controlled by foreign governments

(a) In general

No entity controlled by a foreign government may merge with, acquire, or take over a company engaged in interstate commerce in the United States that—

- (1) is performing a Department of Defense contract, or a Department of Energy contract under a national security program, that cannot be performed satisfactorily unless that company is given access to information in a proscribed category of information; or
- (2) during the previous fiscal year, was awarded—
 - (A) Department of Defense prime contracts in an aggregate amount in excess of $500,000,000; or
 - (B) Department of Energy prime contracts under national security programs in an aggregate amount in excess of $500,000,000.

(b) Inapplicability to certain cases

The limitation in subsection (a) shall not apply if a merger, acquisition, or takeover is not suspended or prohibited pursuant to section 721 of the Defense Production Act of 1950 (50 U.S.C. App. 2170).

(c) Definitions

In this section:

- (1) The term "entity controlled by a foreign government" includes—
 - (A) any domestic or foreign organization or corporation that is effectively owned or controlled by a foreign government; and
 - (B) any individual acting on behalf of a foreign government, as determined by the President.

- (2) The term "proscribed category of information" means a category of information that—
 - (A) with respect to Department of Defense contracts—
 - (i) includes special access information:
 - (ii) is determined by the Secretary of Defense to include information the disclosure of which to an entity controlled by a foreign government is not in the national security interests of the United States; and
 - (iii) is defined in regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Defense for the purposes of this section; and
 - (B) with respect to Department of Energy contracts—
 - (i) is determined by the Secretary of Energy to include information described in subparagraph (A)(ii); and
 - (ii) is defined in regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Energy for the purposes of this section.

(Pub. L. 102–484, div. A, title VIII, $835, Oct. 23, 1992, 106 Stat. 2461.)

CODIFICATION

Section was enacted as part of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1993, and not as part of the Defense Production Act of 1950 which comprises sections 2061 to 2170, 2171, and 2172 of this Appendix.

§2170b. Reports on foreign industrial espionage

(a) In general

(1) Submission and contents

In order to assist Congress in its oversight functions with respect to this Act and to improve the awareness of United States industry of foreign industrial espionage and the ability of such industry to protect against such espionage, the President shall submit to Congress a report that describes, as of the time of the report, the following:

- (A) The respective policy functions and operational roles of the agencies of the executive branch of the Federal Government in identifying and countering threats to United States industry of foreign industrial espionage, including the manner in which such functions and roles are coordinated.
- (B) The means by which the Federal Government communicates information on such threats, and on methods to protect against such threats, to United States industry in general and to United States companies known to be targets of foreign industrial espionage.
- (C) The specific measures that are being or could be undertaken in order to improve the activities referred to in subparagraphs (A) and (B), including proposals for any modifications of law necessary to facilitate the undertaking of such activities.
- (D) The threat to United States industry of foreign industrial espionage and any trends in that threat, including—
- (i) the number and identity of the foreign governments conducting foreign industrial espionage;
- (ii) the industrial sectors and types of information and technology targeted by such espionage; and
- (iii) the methods used to conduct such espionage.

(2) Date of submission

The President shall submit the report required under this subsection not later than six months after the date of the enactment of this Act [Oct. 14, 1994].

(b) Repealed. Pub. L. 112-87, title III, §311(c)(1), Jan. 3, 2012, 125 Stat. 1886

(c) Form of reports

To the maximum extent practicable, the report referred to in subsection (a) shall be submitted in an unclassified form, but may be accompanied by a classified appendix.

(d) Omitted

(e) Definition

For the purposes of this section, "foreign industrial espionage" means industrial espionage conducted by a foreign government or by a foreign company with direct assistance of a foreign government against a private United States company and aimed at obtaining commercial secrets.
