In subsection (d), the date "October 28, 1998" is substituted for "the date of the enactment of this Act" and for "such date" to reflect the date of enactment of the Commercial Space Act of 1998 (Public Law 105–303, 112 Stat. 2843).

§ 50132. Acquisition of commercial space transportation services

- (a) TREATMENT OF COMMERCIAL SPACE TRANS-PORTATION SERVICES AS COMMERCIAL ITEM UNDER ACQUISITION LAWS.—Acquisitions of space transportation services by the Federal Government shall be carried out in accordance with applicable acquisition laws and regulations (including chapters 137 and 140 of title 10). For purposes of such law and regulations, space transportation services shall be considered to be a commercial item.
- (b) SAFETY STANDARDS.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the Federal Government from requiring compliance with applicable safety standards.

§ 50133. Shuttle privatization

The Administrator shall prepare for an orderly transition from the Federal operation, or Federal management of contracted operation, of space transportation systems to the Federal purchase of commercial space transportation services for all nonemergency space transportation requirements for transportation to and from Earth orbit, including human, cargo, and mixed payloads. In those preparations, the Administrator shall take into account the need for short-term economies, as well as the goal of restoring the Administration's research focus and its mandate to promote the fullest possible commercial use of space. As part of those preparations, the Administrator shall plan for the potential privatization of the space shuttle program. Such plan shall keep safety and cost effectiveness as high priorities. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the Administration from studying, designing, developing, or funding upgrades or modifications essential to the safe and economical operation of the space shuttle fleet.

§ 50134. Use of excess intercontinental ballistic missiles

- (a) IN GENERAL.—The Federal Government shall not—
 - (1) convert any missile described in subsection (c) to a space transportation vehicle configuration; or
 - (2) transfer ownership of any such missile to another person, except as provided in subsection (b).
 - (b) AUTHORIZED FEDERAL USES.—
 - (1) IN GENERAL.—A missile described in subsection (c) may be converted for use as a space transportation vehicle by the Federal Government if, except as provided in paragraph (2) and at least 30 days before such conversion, the agency seeking to use the missile as a space transportation vehicle transmits to the Committee on Armed Services and the Committee on Science and Technology of the House of Representatives, and to the Committee on Armed Services and the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate, a certification that the use of such missile—
 - (A) would result in cost savings to the Federal Government when compared to the cost of acquiring space transportation services from United States commercial providers;
 - (B) meets all mission requirements of the agency, including performance, schedule, and risk requirements;
 - (C) is consistent with international obligations of the United States; and
 - (D) is approved by the Secretary of Defense or the designee of the Secretary of Defense
 - (2) EXCEPTION TO REQUIREMENT THAT CERTIFICATION BE TRANSMITTED 30 DAYS BEFORE CONVERSION.—The requirement under paragraph (1) that the certification described in that paragraph must be transmitted at least 30 days before conversion of the missile shall not apply if the Secretary of Defense determines that compliance with that requirement would be inconsistent with meeting immediate national security requirements.
- (c) MISSILES REFERRED TO.—The missiles referred to in this section are missiles owned by the United States that—
 - (1) were formerly used by the Department of Defense for national defense purposes as intercontinental ballistic missiles; and
 - (2) have been declared excess to United States national defense needs and are in compliance with international obligations of the United States.
