§ 12301. Findings

Congress finds that—

- (1) children and youth are inherently the most valuable resource of the United States;
- (2) the welfare, protection, healthy development, and positive role of children and youth in society are essential to the United States;
- (3) children and youth deserve love, respect, and guidance, as well as good health, shelter, food, education, productive employment opportunities, and preparation for responsible participation in community life;
- (4) children and youth have increasing opportunities to participate in the decisions that affect their lives;
- (5) the family is the primary caregiver and source of social learning and must be supported and strengthened;
