

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON FOUNDING FATHERS
EDITORIAL PROJECTS

Pub. L. 110-404, § 5, Oct. 13, 2008, 122 Stat. 4283, provided that:

“(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—The Archivist of the United States may establish an advisory committee to—

“(1) review the progress of the Founding Fathers editorial projects funded by the National Historical Publications and Records Commission;

“(2) develop, in consultation with the various Founding Fathers editorial projects, appropriate completion goals for the projects described in paragraph (1);

“(3) annually review such goals and report to the Archivist on the progress of the various projects in meeting the goals; and

“(4) recommend to the Archivist measures that would aid or encourage the projects in meeting such goals.

“(b) REPORTS TO THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE.—Each of the projects described in subsection (a)(1) shall provide annually to the advisory committee established under subsection (a) a report on the progress of the project toward accomplishing the completion goals and any assistance needed to achieve such goals, including the following:

“(1) The proportion of total project funding for the funding year in which the report is submitted from—

“(A) Federal, State, and local government sources;

“(B) the host institution for the project;

“(C) private or public foundations; and

“(D) individuals.

“(2) Information on all activities carried out using nongovernmental funding.

“(3) Any and all information related to performance goals for the funding year in which the report is submitted.

“(c) COMPOSITION; MEETINGS; REPORT; SUNSET; ACTION.—The advisory committee established under subsection (a) shall—

“(1) be comprised of 3 nationally recognized historians appointed for not more than 2 consecutive 4-year terms;

“(2) meet not less frequently than once a year;

“(3) provide a report on the information obtained under subsection (b) to the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate and the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform of the House of Representatives not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act [Oct. 13, 2008] and annually thereafter;

“(4) terminate on the date that is 8 years after the date of enactment of this Act; and

“(5) recommend legislative or executive action that would facilitate completion of the performance goals for the Founding Fathers editorial projects.”

§ 2506. Records to be kept by grantees

(a) Each recipient of grant assistance under section 2504 of this title shall keep such records as the Archivist of the United States prescribes, including records which fully disclose the amount and disposition by the recipient of the proceeds of the grants, the total cost of the project or undertaking in connection with which funds are given or used, and the amount of that portion of the cost of the project or undertaking supplied by other sources, and any other records as will facilitate an effective audit.

(b) The Archivist and the Comptroller General of the United States or their authorized representatives shall have access for the purposes of audit and examination to books, documents, papers, and records of the recipients that are pertinent to the grants received under section 2504 of this title.
