- (C) to be conducted under the supervision of internationally recognized observers, such as the Organization of American States, the United Nations, and other election monitors;
- (5) has ceased any interference with Radio Marti or Television Marti broadcasts;
- (6) makes public commitments to and is making demonstrable progress in—
 - (A) establishing an independent judiciary;
 - (B) respecting internationally recognized human rights and basic freedoms as set forth in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, to which Cuba is a signatory nation;
 - (C) allowing the establishment of independent trade unions as set forth in conventions 87 and 98 of the International Labor Organization, and allowing the establishment of independent social, economic, and political associations;
- (7) does not include Fidel Castro or Raul Castro; and
- (8) has given adequate assurances that it will allow the speedy and efficient distribution of assistance to the Cuban people.

(b) Additional factors

In addition to the requirements in subsection (a), in determining whether a transition government in Cuba is in power, the President shall take into account the extent to which that government—

- (1) is demonstrably in transition from a communist totalitarian dictatorship to representative democracy;
- (2) has made public commitments to, and is making demonstrable progress in—
 - (A) effectively guaranteeing the rights of free speech and freedom of the press, including granting permits to privately owned media and telecommunications companies to operate in Cuba;
 - (B) permitting the reinstatement of citizenship to Cuban-born persons returning to Cuba:
 - (C) assuring the right to private property;
 - (D) taking appropriate steps to return to United States citizens (and entities which are 50 percent or more beneficially owned by United States citizens) property taken by the Cuban Government from such citizens and entities on or after January 1, 1959, or to provide equitable compensation to such citizens and entities for such property;
- (3) has extradited or otherwise rendered to the United States all persons sought by the United States Department of Justice for crimes committed in the United States; and
- (4) has permitted the deployment throughout Cuba of independent and unfettered international human rights monitors.

§ 6066. Requirements for determining democratically elected government

For purposes of this chapter, a democratically elected government in Cuba, in addition to meeting the requirements of section 6065(a) of this title, is a government which—

- (1) results from free and fair elections—
- (A) conducted under the supervision of internationally recognized observers; and
 - (B) in which—
- (i) opposition parties were permitted ample time to organize and campaign for such elections; and
- (ii) all candidates were permitted full access to the media;
- (2) is showing respect for the basic civil liberties and human rights of the citizens of Cuba:
- (3) is substantially moving toward a marketoriented economic system based on the right to own and enjoy property;
- (4) is committed to making constitutional changes that would ensure regular free and fair elections and the full enjoyment of basic civil liberties and human rights by the citizens of Cuba;
- (5) has made demonstrable progress in establishing an independent judiciary; and
- (6) has made demonstrable progress in returning to United States citizens (and entities which are 50 percent or more beneficially owned by United States citizens) property taken by the Cuban Government from such citizens and entities on or after January 1, 1959, or providing full compensation for such property in accordance with international law standards and practice.

§ 6067. Settlement of outstanding United States claims to confiscated property in Cuba

(a) Report to Congress

Not later than 180 days after March 12, 1996, the Secretary of State shall provide a report to the appropriate congressional committees containing an assessment of the property dispute question in Cuba, including—

- (1) an estimate of the number and amount of claims to property confiscated by the Cuban Government that are held by United States nationals in addition to those claims certified under section 1643f of this title;
- (2) an assessment of the significance of promptly resolving confiscated property claims to the revitalization of the Cuban economy;
- (3) a review and evaluation of technical and other assistance that the United States could
